INSTRUCTIONS

Global notes

1. Net new fields are highlighted in green

I. ABOUT THE ISSUE

This section is designed to capture information needed to investigate and respond to complaints.

**All Products, Services, Sub-Product, Sub-Services, Issues, and Sub-Issues are listed in Attachment 2.*

1. What is this complaint about?* Choose the product or service that best matches your complaint. [RADIO BUTTON]

- a. Product or Service (e.g., student loan)
- b. Sub-Product or Sub-Service (e.g., private student loan)

Prompts for Item 2 are driven by response to Item 1.

2. What type of problem are you having?* Most of the (driven by sub-product or sub-service selected in Item 1) complaints we get are about one of the following topics. Select the one that best describes your complaint. You will have the chance to explain your complaint in detail in the next step.

[RADIO BUTTON]

- a. Issue (e.g., getting a loan)
- b. Sub-Issue (optional) (e.g., denied loan)

The web form uses the response to Item 1 to suggest possible issues and sub-issues.

3. Have you already tried to fix this problem with the company?* [RADIO BUTTON]

- a. Yes
- b. No

4. Did you request information from the company?* [RADIO BUTTON]

Only appears if the user selects "Yes" in Item 3.

- a. Yes

Inventory of Questions for the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's Consumer Response Intake Form

- Text box provides examples: (statements, notices, loan documents)

6. Did the company provide this information?* [RADIO BUTTON]

Only appears if the user selects "Yes" in Item 4.

- a. Yes
- b. No

7. What happened?* Include key details needed for a company to understand and respond to your specific issue. In your own words, tell us:

- What the company did, and when
- If there was any money involved, and if so, how much
- What happened if you contacted the company about this issue

We'll send this to the company or companies you identify in Step 4 for response.

Do not include personal information, such as your name, account number, address, Social Security number, etc. We will ask for some of this information later, to help the company identify you and your account. [TEXT]

8. I want the CFPB to publish this description on consumerfinance.gov so that others can learn from my experience. The CFPB will take steps to remove my personal information from this description but someone may still be able to identify me. Learn how it works [HYPERLINK]. I consent to publishing this description after the CFPB has taken these steps.

Publishing this description will not affect how the CFPB handles your complaint.
[CHECKBOX]

9. What would be a fair resolution to this issue?* Be specific so a company can understand how you think your issue could be fixed. After the company responds, you can provide feedback about the response.

We look for patterns in companies' responses and consumer feedback to help us identify problems in the marketplace and prioritize our actions.
[TEXT]

10. Attach documents to support your complaint (encouraged, and optional) Even if you think the company already has the information, it's helpful to include photos, screenshots, or copies of documents and communications that support your complaint. For example, account statements, receipts, proof of payment, communications from the company. We will forward what you attach to the company for review.

* Answers to these questions are necessary for the CFPB to take action.
