

New BIFAD Member Pre-Orientation Survey

To facilitate an effective onboarding experience for new members, we hope to learn from your perceptions prior to the start of orientation. Your responses will provide valuable information about your expectations, preferences, and needs for the orientation and for effectively fulfilling your new role as a board member. Completion is expected to take about 5 minutes. Your candid feedback is sincerely appreciated. Please contact the BIFAD Support Contract Senior Counselor

The orientation process is organized into three key content areas. Rank the areas in order from the content area on which you would like to spend the most time to the content area on which you would like to spend the least time, based on your current understanding and experience.

Guiding Principles and Policies: Serves to orient new members to the purpose, roles, and guiding policies of the Board and Board members.

Global Landscape of International Food and Agriculture Development: Serves to orient new members to the global landscape of international food and agriculture to include, for example, introduction to USAID offices and units, overview of key strategies such as the Global Food Security Strategy (GFSS), New Partnerships Initiative, and Private Sector Engagement Policy, and review of key BIFAD public meetings and recent technical products.

Operationalizing Systems: Serves to prepare new members to begin working within the established systems for communications, workflow, and logistics of serving on the board to include, for example, overview of the role of the BIFAD Support Contract team, instructions

Is there anything else you would like to share with the team regarding the orientation process?

6

What other feedback, suggestions, or general comments would you like to share? Thank you for your candid feedback. We will use this information to improve the orientation experience for future members, and to fill post-orientation gaps.

Thank you for your feedback!
