

HHS ASPA is adding four questions to its Monthly Outcome Survey. Three questions will measure vaccination intention and uptake for kids ages 5 through 17 (as reported by their parents/guardians), while the fourth will measure intent to vaccinate children under 5 if they become eligible for an FDA-authorized COVID-19 vaccine. The addition of these questions adds an additional 33 hours of burden per wave that will be accounted for accordingly.