History and Description of the Cultural Items

In 1980, Frederick Anderson donated three lithic projectile points with a Michigan provenience to the Fort Lauderdale Historical Society (History Fort Lauderdale). In 2021, History Fort Lauderdale was contacted by the Tribal Historic Preservation Officer for the Bay Mills Indian Community, Michigan. According to information provided by the Bay Mills Indian Community, these projectile points are considered a sacred symbol of the Tribe's cultural identity. Based on consultation information provided by the Bay Mills Indian Community, History Fort Lauderdale has determined that these lithic items meet the definition of objects of cultural patrimony.

Determinations Made by History Fort Lauderdale

Officials of History Fort Lauderdale have determined that:

- Pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001(3)(D), the three cultural items described above have ongoing historical, traditional, or cultural importance central to the Native American group or culture itself, rather than property owned by an individual.

- Pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001(2), there is a relationship of shared group identity that can be reasonably traced between the objects of cultural patrimony and the Bay Mills Indian Community, Michigan.
