829?	You may use this form to request the removal of conditions on your permanent resident status if you were granted conditional permanent resident status as an investor. You may include your conditional permanent resident spouse or former spouse and children in your petition. If your spouse and children are not included on this Form I-829 petition, each dependent must file his or her own petition separately. Your spouse and children cannot be included together on a Form I-829 petition if they are not filing with you, the principal investor. However, the surviving spouse and children may be included together on a Form I-829 petition if the principal investor has died. If you are the conditional permanent resident child of an investor and you have reached 21 years of age or married during the period of conditional permanent residency, or if you are the former conditional permanent resident spouse of an investor, who was divorced from the investor during the period of conditional permanent residence, you may still be included in the investor's petition or you may choose to file a separate petition. [Page 2] NOTE: If you are filing a separate petition from the investor, you should attach a copy of the investor's Form I-797, Notice of Action, relating to his or her I-829 petition. If you obtained conditional permanent resident status through your investor spouse or parent, and that spouse or parent has died, you may use this form to petition for removal of the conditions on your permanent resident status.	You may use this form to request the removal of conditions on your permanent resident status if you were granted conditional permanent resident status as an investor.
