

AFFIDAVIT OF PHYSICAL PRESENCE OR RESIDENCE, PARENTAGE, AND SUPPORT

USE OF THIS FORM

The Affidavit of Physical Presence or Residence, Parentage, and Support is used in adjudicating claims to U.S. citizenship/non-citizen U.S. nationality by birth abroad to a U.S. citizen and/or non-citizen U.S. national parent. The information collected on this form provides supporting evidence for a claim to U.S. citizenship/non-citizen U.S. nationality.

HOW TO COMPLETE THIS FORM

Note: Part II and III of this document must be signed before a Consular Officer, Passport Specialist, or Designated Consular/Acceptance Agent at the time the oath is sworn. A U.S. Consular Officer or Passport Specialist may require additional evidence of one's relationship to the child and/or evidence of one's physical presence or residence in the United States.

PART I. The affiant (the U.S. citizen/non-citizen U.S. national parent) must complete this section which includes providing the affiant's information as follows:

- a. full name
- b. marital status
- c. U.S. citizen/non-citizen U.S. national status
- d. full name of your child(ren), date and place of birth of your child(ren), and your relationship to your child(ren) (whether you are their biological parent and/or legal parent, or other). A biological parent has a genetic or gestational tie to the child. A legal parent is legally recognized as the parent of the child.
- e. physical presence or residence in the United States
- f. physical presence or residence abroad
- g. name of the other parent, their citizenship status, and physical presence or residence in the United States
Month and Year [or MM-YYYY format] is acceptable if exact dates of physical presence and/or residence are unknown. You may be asked to provide exact dates to determine that statutory requirements have been met. If additional space is needed, attach another page.

PART II. If the child(ren) was (were) born out of wedlock and claims acquisition of U.S. citizenship through the father, the child(ren)'s father must sign this section.

PART III. The affiant parent must sign this section and provide their street address and telephone number.

WARNING

False statements made knowingly and willfully in applications for citizenship documentation or affidavits and other supporting documents are punishable by fine and/or imprisonment under the provisions of 18 USC 1001 and other applicable criminal statutes.

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

AUTHORITY: The Department of State is authorized to collect this information pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §§ 1104(a), 1401, 1408 and 1409, and 22 U.S.C. §§ 211a, 213 and 2705.

PURPOSE: The principal purpose of the information gathered is to assist in determining whether a U.S. national parent of a child born abroad or in a United States territory has met the statutory physical presence or residence requirements for their child to acquire U.S. nationality at birth; and whether a U.S. national father of a child born abroad out of wedlock has met additional requirements of 8 U.S.C. § 1409(a) in relation to biological parentage and legal relationship with and financial support of the child born abroad out of wedlock, in order for such child to acquire U.S. citizenship at birth.

ROUTINE USES: The information solicited on this form may be made available to Federal government entities such as the Social Security Administration, the Department of Homeland Security, and Department of Justice, in connection with determinations of citizenship status, administration of federal benefits, and law enforcement purposes as set forth in the System of Records Notices for Overseas Citizens Services Records and Other Overseas Records, State-05, 81 FR 62235-62239 (2016); Passport Records, State-26, 80 FR 15653 (2015); and the Department-wide Prefatory Statement of Routine Uses, 73 FR 40649-40651 (2008). Information also can be made available to appropriate federal, state, local or foreign government entities, such as state law enforcement agencies, state prosecutors, judicial staff, and Interpol, in connection with law enforcement, safety, welfare and related matters, as set forth in the aforementioned System of Records Notices. Furnishing the information on this form is voluntary; however, failure to furnish the requested information may delay or prevent you from documenting your child as a U.S. citizen/non-citizen U.S. national.

DISCLOSURE: Furnishing the information on this form is voluntary; however, failure to furnish the requested information may delay or prevent you from documenting your child as a U.S. citizen/non-citizen U.S. national.

PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT (PRA) STATEMENT

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 30 minutes per response, including time required for searching existing data sources, gathering the necessary documentation, providing the information and/or documents required, and reviewing the final collection. You do not have to supply this information unless this collection displays a currently valid OMB control number.
