Customer Experience: OMB Circular A-11, Section 280
Implementation"
(OMB Control Number: 1545-2290)

TITLE OF INFORMATION COLLECTION: E-Help Customer Experience Survey

PURPOSE OF COLLECTION:

On June of 2018, the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) released a modification to Circular A-11, section 280. This section explains how federal agencies should manage customer experience improvement programs. Specifically titled "Managing Customer Experience and Improving Service Delivery," section 280 was created to support a customer experience culture in the federal government, provide a common framework for approaching and measuring customer experience, encourage federal agencies to apply leading private sector practices and improve customer satisfaction with federal service delivery.

Improving customer experience is a transformation priority in the President's Management Agenda, and the guidance in this OMB addendum aligns with this long-term vision of federal government modernization. Customer experience influences satisfaction, trust and confidence in the federal government. The private sector has set a high bar, and digital tools now make new service models possible. It is now believed that people want modern, streamlined and responsive experiences from all types of federal service delivery.

The result for IRS is that customer experience surveys within transactional service channels are now aligned to contain seven core questions provided by OMB, and these surveys cannot be longer than a total of 15 questions. In addition, the IRS will, along with other High Impact Service Providers across the Federal Government, provide quarterly results of their customer experience surveys to be shared publicly through a Customer Experience Cross Agency Priority Goal (CX CAPG) web page on Performance.gov.

4. What will the activity look like?

The Assistor asks the customer to participate in the survey. Callers who agree to participate are transferred to the team leader, who then transfers the customer into an automated survey. At the end of the survey the caller is asked if they would like to be contacted to participate in future surveys and they answer yes or no. Free response question #3 will be used to better understand why a customer was or was not satisfied with the transaction. Free response question #14 will be used to better understand what additional services could be provided to improve the customer experience.
