Request for Approval under the "Generic Clearance for Improving
Customer Experience: OMB Circular A-11, Section 280
Implementation"

TITLE OF INFORMATION COLLECTION: W&I Refundable Credits Examination
Operations (RCEO) Toll-Free Customer Service

PURPOSE OF COLLECTION:

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has a balanced measurement system consisting of business results, customer satisfaction, and employee satisfaction. This initiative is part of the Service-wide effort to maintain a system of balanced organizational performance measures mandated by the IRS Restructuring and Reform Act (RRA) of 1998. This is also a result of Executive Order 12862 that requires all government agencies to survey their customers.

As part of an agency-wide initiative to monitor and improve customer satisfaction, the Interactive Voice Response (IVR) surveys measure customer satisfaction "at the point of transaction" after completion of a telephone call with an IRS representative. W&I solicits taxpayer feedback through customer satisfaction research to continually improve its RCEO Toll-Free customer service operation.

ACTIVITY DETAILS

1. How will you collect the information? (Check all that apply)

- Web-based or other forms of Social Media
- Telephone
- In-person
- Mail
- Other, Explain

2. Who will you collect the information from?

Callers are randomly selected by the IRS' call center software system during business days. The survey goal is to receive 50 completed surveys at each of the 5 call sites each month. The surveying does not stop after the site goals are met each month. Exceeding the monthly goal helps ensure statistical reliability and minimization of survey bias; however, not reaching the goal can have the opposite effect.

3. How will you ask a respondent to provide this information?

Notices of calls identified for survey invitation appear on IRS Customer Service Representatives (CSRs) telephone displays. At the end of the service interaction, the CSR reads a short script to invite survey participation. If callers give consent, the CSR transfers them to the contractor's IVR system and the survey is administered.

4. What will the activity look like?

The survey will comprise 12 questions, inclusive of the questions required per the A-11 Section 280 guidance.
