In this instance, you may choose to file additional evidence with Form I-918 to add to the evidence submitted with the request for interim relief.

NOTE: You may use one document to demonstrate more than one element of your claim.

- 1. Supplement B. You must submit an original, properly and timely executed Supplement B certification with your Form I-918. However, petitioners who requested and received U interim relief are not required to file Supplement B.

USCIS will give this certification significant weight as evidence demonstrating that you are a victim; that you possess information about the criminal activity; that the criminal activity violated the laws of the United States or occurred in the United States (including Indian country and military installations) or the territories and possessions of the United States; and that you were, are, or are likely to be helpful in the investigation or prosecution of the qualifying criminal activity of which you are a victim. You must also provide any additional relevant evidence to help meet these eligibility requirements.

- 2. Evidence You Are the Victim of Qualifying Criminal Activity. You must demonstrate you have suffered direct and proximate harm as a result of the commission of qualifying criminal activity. You must include with your Form I-918 evidence establishing you are a victim of qualifying criminal activity. You may use Supplement B to help establish this eligibility requirement and include additional evidence you want USCIS to consider. A non-exhaustive list of the types of evidence you may submit includes, but is not limited to:

- A. Trial transcripts;
- B. Court documents;

- C. Police reports;
 - D. News articles;
 - E. Affidavits; and
 - F. Orders of protection.

- 3. Evidence You Have Suffered Substantial Physical or Mental Abuse. You must present credible evidence that demonstrates you suffered substantial physical or mental abuse as a result of having been a victim of qualifying criminal activity. You may use Supplement B to help establish this eligibility requirement and include additional evidence you want USCIS to consider.

The evidence must show the nature and severity of the abuse you suffered. Factors USCIS will consider to determine whether the abuse is substantial include:

- A. The nature of the injury inflicted;
- B. The severity of the perpetrator's conduct;
- C. The severity of the harm you suffered;
- D. The duration of the infliction of the harm; and
- E. The extent to which there is permanent or serious harm to your appearance, health, or physical or mental soundness.

No single factor is a prerequisite to establish that the abuse suffered was substantial, nor does the existence of one or more of the factors automatically create a presumption that the abuse was substantial. If the criminal activity caused the aggravation of a pre-existing physical or mental injury, USCIS will consider that aggravation in evaluating whether the harm constitutes substantial physical or mental abuse. If the criminal activity involved a series of acts or occurred repeatedly over a period of time, document the pattern of abuse. USCIS will consider the abuse in its totality. USCIS may consider a series of acts taken together to have caused substantial physical or mental abuse even where no single act alone rises to that level.

You are encouraged to provide and document all credible evidence, particularly when documenting a pattern of abuse. A non-exhaustive list of suggested forms of evidence includes, but is not limited to:

- A. Reports and/or affidavits from judges and other court officials, medical personnel, school officials, clergy, social workers, and other social service personnel;
 - B. Orders of protection and related legal documents;
 - C. Photos of your visible injuries supported by affidavits; and
 - D. Affidavits from witnesses, acquaintances, or family members who have personal knowledge of the facts regarding the criminal activity.
- 4. Evidence You Possess Information Concerning Qualifying Criminal Activity. You must submit evidence demonstrating you possess information concerning the qualifying criminal activity of which you were a victim. You must demonstrate that you have knowledge of details concerning the criminal activity that would assist in the investigation or prosecution of that criminal activity.

You may use Supplement B to help establish this eligibility requirement and include additional evidence you want USCIS to consider. Additional evidence to establish you possess information about the qualifying criminal activity may include, but is not limited to, reports and affidavits from police, judges, and other court officials.

In cases where the petitioner is a child under 16 years of age or is incapacitated or incompetent, the parent, guardian, or “next friend” can satisfy this requirement by submitting the evidence on behalf of the petitioner. “Next friend” is a person who appears in a lawsuit to act for the benefit of a victim under 16 years of age or incapacitated or incompetent, who has suffered substantial physical or mental abuse as a result of being a victim of qualifying criminal activity. The next friend is not a party to the legal proceeding and is not appointed as a guardian. Evidence to meet this eligibility requirement must include documents establishing the age, incapacity, or incompetence of the victim. Examples of such evidence include, but are not limited to:

- A. Birth certificate of the petitioner;
- B. Court documents demonstrating recognition of an individual as the petitioner’s next friend;
- C. Medical records; or
- D. Reports of licensed medical professionals demonstrating the incapacity or incompetence of the petitioner.

5. Evidence of Helpfulness. You must submit evidence demonstrating that you were, are, or are likely to be helpful to a certifying official in the investigation or prosecution of the qualifying criminal activity of which you are a victim.

You may use Supplement B to help establish this eligibility requirement and include additional evidence you want USCIS to consider. Examples of such evidence include, but are not limited to:

- A. Trial transcripts;
- B. Court documents;
- C. Police reports;
- D. News articles;
- E. Copies of reimbursement forms for travel to and from court; and
- F. Affidavits of other witnesses or officials.

In cases where the petitioner is a child under 16 years of age or is incapacitated or incompetent, the parent, guardian, or next friend can satisfy this requirement by submitting the evidence on behalf of the victim. Evidence to meet this eligibility requirement must include documents establishing the age, incapacity, or incompetence of the victim. Examples of such documentation include, but are not limited to:

- A. Birth certificate of the petitioner;
- B. Court documents demonstrating recognition of an individual as the petitioner’s next friend;
- C. Medical records; or
- D. Reports of licensed medical professionals demonstrating the incapacity or incompetence of the petitioner.

6. Evidence that Criminal Activity is Qualifying and Violated United States Law or Occurred in the United States.

You must submit evidence that the criminal activity of which you are a victim is included in the list of criminal activities contained in section 101(a)(15)(U)(iii) of the INA and included in these Instructions, and that the criminal activity violated a U.S. Federal law that provides for extraterritorial jurisdiction, or occurred in the United States (including in Indian country and military installations) or the territories and possessions of the United States.

You may use Supplement B to help establish this eligibility requirement and include additional evidence you want USCIS to consider. An example of such additional evidence includes, but is not limited to:

- A. A copy of the statutory provisions showing the elements of the offense or factual information about the criminal activity demonstrating that it is similar to a crime contained in the list of qualifying criminal activity contained at section 101(a)(15)(U)(iii) and in these Instructions; or
- B. If the criminal activity occurred outside the United States, the additional evidence may include a copy of the statutory provisions providing for the extraterritorial jurisdiction and documentation showing that the criminal activity violated Federal law and is prosecutable in a Federal court.

7. Personal Statement. You must provide a personal narrative statement. This statement should describe the qualifying criminal activity of which you are a victim and must include the following information:
- A. The nature of the criminal activity;
 - B. When the criminal activity occurred;
 - C. Who was responsible;
 - D. The events surrounding the criminal activity;
 - E. How the criminal activity came to be investigated or prosecuted; and
 - F. What substantial physical and/or mental abuse you suffered as a result of having been the victim of the criminal activity.

When the petitioner is under 16 years of age, incapacitated, or incompetent, a parent, guardian, or next friend may submit a statement in lieu of the victim. The statement should contain as much information surrounding the criminal activity and physical and/or mental abuse as possible.

8. Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility. To be eligible for U nonimmigrant status, you must be admissible to the United States. If you or your qualifying family members answered “Yes” to any of the questions in Part 3. of Form I-918 or Part 5. of Supplement A, USCIS may deem you or your qualifying family members as inadmissible.

If you and/or your qualifying family members are or become inadmissible for conduct that occurs while the petition for U nonimmigrant status is pending, you and/or your family members are not eligible for U nonimmigrant status unless the ground of inadmissibility is waived by USCIS.

Petitioners seeking a waiver of inadmissibility must submit Form I-192, Application for Advance Permission to Enter as a Nonimmigrant. You may file your Form I-192 with your Form I-918. You must submit the appropriate I-192 fee or a request for a fee waiver (Form I-912, Request for Fee Waiver, or a written request). If you request a fee waiver you must also submit any required evidence of your inability to pay the fee. You can review the fee waiver guidance at www.uscis.gov/feewaiver. USCIS will decide eligibility for the fee waiver.

Supplement A and Evidence to Support Supplement A

You must include the following evidence to establish derivative U nonimmigrant status on Supplement A.

1. A completed Supplement A for each qualifying family member you want included on your Form I-918.
2. Credible documentation of the claimed relationship. The documents acceptable for this purpose are below.

If you are filing for your:

- C. Child and you are the father. Submit a copy of the child’s birth certificate issued by a civil authority showing both parents’ names. If the child was born out of wedlock, give proof that a parent/child relationship exists or existed (for example, provide the child’s birth certificate showing your name and evidence that you have financially supported the child. In some cases, a blood test may be necessary);
- D. Mother. Submit a copy of your birth certificate issued by a civil authority showing your name and your mother’s name;

If you are filing for a stepparent or adoptive parent, or if you are filing for your father and were not legitimated before you reached 18 years of age, also see Items C., G., and H. in this section;
- F. Stepparent/stepchild. If your Form I-918 is based on a stepparent-stepchild relationship, you must file your petition with a copy of the marriage certificate of the stepparent to the child's natural parent, showing that the marriage occurred before the child reached 18 years of age and copies of documents showing that any prior marriages were legally terminated;

In either case, you must also submit copies of evidence that the child was in the legal custody of and jointly resided with the adoptive parents for at least two years before or after the adoption. Only a court or recognized government entity may grant legal custody and usually grants legal custody at the time the adoption is finalized. However, if legal custody is granted by a court or recognized government entity prior to the adoption, that time will count to fulfill the two-year legal custody requirement; or
- H. Your unmarried sibling under 18 years of age. Submit a copy of your birth certificate and a copy of your sibling's birth certificate showing that you have at least one common parent. If you and your sibling have a common father but different mothers, submit copies of the marriage certificates of the father to each mother and copies of documents showing that any prior marriages of either your father or mothers were legally terminated. If you and your sibling are related through adoption or through a stepparent, or if you have a common father and either of you were not legitimated before you reached 18 years of age, also see Items F. and G. in this section.
- 3. Unavailable Documents. If the required documents are not available, submit a statement of why the evidence is not available and provide secondary evidence such as the following:

- B. Census records. State or Federal census records showing the names, places and dates of birth, or ages of the persons listed;
- C. School records. A letter from the authority of the school attended (preferably the first school) showing dates of admission to the school, child's date and place of birth, and the names and birthplaces of both parents, if shown in the school records; and/or
- D. Affidavits. Written statements sworn to or affirmed by two persons who were living at the time and who have personal knowledge of the event you are trying to prove. Each affidavit should contain the following:
- (1) The relationship, if any, between you and the person making the affidavit;
 - (2) Full information concerning the event; and
 - (3) Complete details concerning how the person acquired knowledge of the event.
- NOTE: In a case where you or your family member's name has changed from what is shown on the supporting document, submit the legal document authorizing such name change. (For example, provide a marriage certificate, adoption decree, or court order.)

NOTE: USCIS may require a statement from the appropriate civil authority certifying that the necessary document is unavailable.

Initial Processing. Once USCIS accepts your Form I-918 or Supplement A, we will check it for completeness. If you do not completely fill out this petition or supplement, you will not establish a basis for your eligibility and USCIS may reject or deny your Form I-918 or Supplement A.

Requests for More Information. We may request that you provide more information or evidence to support your Form I-918 or Supplement A. We also may request that you provide the originals of any copies you submit. USCIS will return any requested originals when they are no longer needed.

Employment authorization can only be issued after the underlying U nonimmigrant status petition is approved, regardless of when the Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, document is filed.

If the statutory cap is reached in a fiscal year and USCIS uses the waiting list process described at 8 CFR 214.14(d)(2), petitioners for U nonimmigrant status and derivatives in the United States can apply for employment authorization using Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, based on deferred action. An application for employment authorization based on deferred action can only be approved after DHS has deferred action in your case, regardless of when the Form I-765 is filed.
