

Report Housing Discrimination

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development
Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity

QUESTION 1

Why do you believe someone discriminated against you, someone you live with, or someone you sought to live with?

- Because of race
- Because of color
- Because of religion
- Because of national origin (including limited English proficiency)
- Because of disability
- Because of sex (this includes, but is not limited to, discrimination because of gender, actual or perceived gender identity or sexual orientation)
- Because of familial status (this includes children under 18 years old, pregnancy or seeking legal custody)
- Because of, or as a direct result of, you or someone in your household being a survivor of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking (such as for having a criminal record, eviction history, or bad credit history), or because you believe another housing right under the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) was violated (for example, your landlord did not provide an emergency transfer, you were penalized for calling 9-1-1 or seeking emergency services). VAWA protections apply regardless of sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity
- Because of retaliation, intimidation, or interference related to exercising a fair housing right or a VAWA right (such as filing a complaint; testifying in a proceeding), or helping others to
- Other reason (explain below)

- Other members of my household or other people at the property experienced discrimination. We'll collect their name(s) and contact information when we speak with you.

Date(s) of discrimination:

The alleged discrimination is continuing or ongoing or the alleged discrimination is still happening.

QUESTION 5

What happened?

Summarize the events and why you believe you experienced housing discrimination because of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, or familial status and/or a violation of your VAWA rights. For example: Were you refused an opportunity to rent or buy housing? Denied a loan? Told that housing was not available when in fact it was? Treated differently because of the presence of minor children? Denied a disability related reasonable accommodation? Evicted because of your sexual orientation? Terminated from participating in a housing-assistance program? Denied a right because of or on the basis of being a survivor of domestic violence or sexual assault? Penalized for calling 9-1-1? Treated differently or denied services by a state, local government, public housing agency, or other organization that may receive money from HUD? Describe the reasons you believe discrimination occurred, any evidence you might have and provide the names of witnesses (if any).

Paperwork Reduction Act Burden Statement

The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 0.75 hours, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information.

Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions to reduce this burden, to the Reports Management Officer, Paperwork Reduction Project, the Office of Information Technology, US. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Washington, DC 20410-3600. When providing comments, please refer to OMB Approval No. 2529-0011. HUD may not conduct and sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless the collection displays a valid control number.

This collection of information is required for collection of pertinent information from persons or entities who wish to file housing discrimination complaints under the Fair Housing Act of 1968, as amended. 42 U.S.C. § 3601 et seq. The information will be used to provide HUD with sufficient information to contact aggrieved persons and notify respondents; make initial assessments regarding HUD's authority to investigate allegations of unlawful housing discrimination; and conduct administrative complaint investigations. No assurances of confidentiality are provided for this information collection.
