Not interested	Hi, this is RTI International on behalf of the CDC's National Center for Health Statistics. We understand that you may not be interested in participating, but we hope you will reconsider. Please let me know when I can return to explain the importance of this national study.	Hi, thank you for your email. This is RTI International (RTI) on behalf of the CDC's National Center for Health Statistics. We understand that you may not be interested in participating, but we hope you will reconsider. We need to survey everyone selected for the study in order for the data to truly represent the population. We would like to take a moment to explain the study further.  The National Survey of Family Growth (NSFG) is conducted for the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's (CDC) National Center for Health Statistics (NCHS). RTI, a nonprofit research organization, carries out the NSFG survey for NCHS. By participating in this survey, you contribute key information on health
