Join us for the December OLAW Webinar: Searching for Animal Alternatives and Finding Model Organisms

10/26/2021

OLAW December Webinar: "Best Practices for Conducting a Search for Alternatives and Finding Animal Model/Model Organism Information"

December 9, 2021, from 1:00 – 2:00 PM ET

In this webinar, experts from the NIH Library and USDA Animal Welfare Information Center will discuss how to find 3Rs methods (replacement, reduction, and refinement) and animal use alternative information in bibliographic databases. Participants will also learn how to find journal articles, patents, NIH-funded research projects, and genetic information related to animal models and model organisms, as well as requirements and resources for the NIH Model Organism Sharing Policy.

If you have any questions in advance of the webinar, please submit them to olawdpe@mail.nih.gov.

Registration is now open.
