Thank you for providing your feedback on your experiences with NIH StrokeNet. NINDS is conducting this survey of NIH StrokeNet participants to assess satisfaction with service delivery by the network and NINDS; to determine the extent to which participants feel the network has facilitated the development and conduct of high-quality, multi-site clinical trials focused on key interventions in stroke prevention, treatment and recovery; and to obtain feedback relevant to program improvement.

Please note that your responses will not be identified with you personally or with your organization; survey results will be reported only in aggregate or de-identified form. NINDS does not plan to publish results of this survey but will use the responses received to inform future program improvements. If you have questions about the survey, or if you have any technical difficulty accessing or responding to the survey, please contact Dr. Cristina Nigro (cristina.nigro@nih.gov).
