Health Sciences Libraries' Preparedness for Data Management and Sharing Policy Support

You are being invited to participate in a research study titled “Health Science Libraries Policy Support Preparedness for the Implementation of the 2023 NIH Data Management and Sharing (DMS) Policy.” The purpose of this research study is to examine libraries’ and librarians’ preparedness for supporting the 2023 NIH DMS Policy, in order to help inform the development of training and resources, as well as provide insight into existing services and expertise.

You are eligible to participate in this survey if you are a director of a biomedical or health sciences library or designated by your director to respond on your institution’s behalf. Please submit only one response per institution.

This survey will ask about your library's DMS-related services and how your institution is preparing for the policy. The survey should take you approximately 5 minutes to complete.

Your participation in this study is completely voluntary, and you can withdraw at any time. If you have questions about this project or if you have a research-related problem, you may contact Lisa Federer at lisa.federer@nih.gov. By clicking “Next” below you are indicating that you are at least eighteen years old, have read and understood this consent form, and agree to participate in this research study.
