Table of Contents

Subpart 3137_Unitization Agreements_National Petroleum Reserve-Alaska

Sec. 3137.87 What must I do if there are unleased Federal tracts in a participating area?

If there are unleased Federal tracts in a participating area, you must--

- (a) Include the unleased Federal tracts in the participating area, even though BLM will not share in unit costs;
- (b) Allocate production for royalty purposes as if the unleased Federal tracts were leased and committed to the unit agreement under Sec. 3137.100 of this subpart;
- (c) Admit Federal tracts leased after the effective date of the unit agreement into the unit agreement on the date the lease is effective; and
- (d) Submit to BLM revised maps, a list of committed leases, and allocation schedules that reflect the commitment of the newly leased Federal tracts to the unit.
