Privacy Act Statement and Declaration of Eligibility

FEMA is required by law to provide you with a copy of the Privacy Act Statement.

The Privacy Act of 1974 protects your rights as to how FEMA uses and shares your information with entities such as states, tribes, local governments, and other organizations. The Stafford Act and other laws allow FEMA to collect information to determine eligibility and provide assistance as a result of a Presidentially declared disaster.

If you receive FEMA assistance and your insurance or other sources cover the same loss, you may be required to return some or all of the FEMA assistance you received.

To be eligible for assistance, you must declare, that you or someone in your household is a citizen, non-citizen national, or a qualified alien of the United States. If you provide false information or lie in an attempt to get assistance, it is a violation of federal and state laws, which carry criminal or civil penalties or both.

You authorize FEMA and the state, tribe, or local government to verify all the information you provide and request documentation from your insurance company, or other third parties, to determine your eligibility for assistance.

The disclosure of information, including the Social Security number, on this form is voluntary; however, failure to provide the information requested may delay or prevent you from receiving disaster assistance.

ROUTINE USE(S): FEMA may share the personal information of U.S. citizens and lawful permanent residents contained in their disaster assistance files outside of FEMA as generally permitted under 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b) of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended. FEMA may share the personal information of non-citizens, as permitted by the following Privacy Impact Assessments: DHS/FEMA/PIA-012(a) Disaster Assistance Improvement Plan (DAIP) (Nov. 16, 2012); DHS/ FEMA/PIA-027 National Emergency Management Information System - Individual Assistance (NEMIS-IA) Web-based and Client-based Modules (June 29, 2012); DHS/FEMA/PIA-015 Quality Assurance Recording System (Aug. 15, 2014). This includes sharing your personal information with federal, state, tribal, local agencies and voluntary organizations to enable individuals to receive additional disaster assistance, to prevent duplicating your benefits, or for FEMA to recover disaster funds received erroneously, spent inappropriately, or through fraud as necessary and authorized by routine uses published in DHS/FEMA-008 Disaster Recovery Assistance Files Notice of System of Records, 78 Fed. Reg. 25,282 (Apr.30, 2013) and upon written request, by agreement or as required by law.

CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO PROVIDE INFORMATION: The disclosure of information, including the SSN, on this form is voluntary; however, failure to provide the information requested may delay or prevent the individual from receiving disaster assistance.

I hereby declare, under penalty of perjury that one of the following is true:

- I am a citizen or non-citizen national of the United States.
- I am a qualified alien of the United States.
- I am the parent or guardian of a minor child who resides with me and who is a citizen, non-citizen national or qualified alien of the United States.

You need the following to complete your application.

In most cases you can only submit one application per household. There may be situations where more than one application per household is possible. Anyone living at the address who is financially responsible for themselves may submit a separate application. Examples: A boarder who pays rent for space in the home or roommates who are all named on the lease.

Call FEMA's Helpline if you have questions about:

- How to apply for assistance.
- How to complete your application.
- How to get information or make updates to your account.
- The help FEMA offers.

You may call 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. ET, 7 days a week:

- 1-800-621-3362 (711 available)
- If you use a video relay service, captioned phone, or other communication service, give FEMA the number for that service when you call.

If you're having technical problems, call FEMA's Internet Help Desk, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week:

- 1-800-745-0243

The help desk can help you with:

- Lost or forgotten user ID, password, or PIN.
- Errors or other site-related problems.

Note: The FEMA Internet Help Desk is not able to provide any information or help your FEMA application.

If you are a disaster survivor, you may qualify for federal assistance.

- If you are applying for both home and business disaster assistance, complete one registration to cover both.
- If you are applying for multiple disasters, you will need to complete a registration for each disaster.

You'll need the following to complete your registration:

- Social Security Number (SSN) OR the SSN of a minor child in the household who is a U.S. Citizen, Non-Citizen National or Qualified Alien
- Annual Household Income
- Contact Information (phone number, mailing address, email address*, and damaged home address)
- Insurance Information (coverage, insurance company name, etc.)
- Bank Account Information (if you are eligible to receive financial assistance, the money can be deposited in your account)

* Note: You must provide an email address if you want to review your registration status online. If you do not provide an email address, you will be required to contact FEMA for any updates to your registration.

If you need further information or assistance:

Call the FEMA Helpline at 1-800-621-3362. This number is also for users of 711 or Video Relay Service (VRS). TTY users can call 1-800-462-7585. Helpline services are available 7 days a week from 7 a.m. to 1 a.m. ET.

Filing an Application for Someone Other Than Yourself

Sometimes there are situations when a person affected by a disaster is not able to apply for themselves. In these cases, FEMA allows a representative to apply for this person as long as they are able to provide us with all relevant information.

If you will be helping this person throughout the process, they must provide FEMA with a release-of-information (PDF 553 KB) document that allows you access to the file.

Note: It's important you understand that your application becomes a legal document. FEMA may use external sources to verify the accuracy of the information you enter.

Income Information

Your household annual gross income is the combined amount of all income before any deductions. This includes wages, unemployment payments, Social Security, assistance from other government agencies (except Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program [SNAP] benefits), child support, stocks, interest, annuities, etc.

Please give us your household's pre-disaster annual gross income. This reduces processing time and directs your application to the best programs to meet your needs.

What is your household's pre-disaster annual gross income?

Enter numbers only. No dollar signs, no commas, no decimal point or cents.

Example: Enter income as "55000" NOT "55,000.00"

Is your household's main source of income from self-employment?

Yes No

How many dependents do you have, including yourself?

Financial Information

This next section is about your household income and business information before the disaster.

Income

Your household annual gross income is the amount before any deductions are subtracted.

- This includes wages, unemployment payments, social security, welfare, child support, stocks, interest, annuities, etc.

Please provide your household annual gross income at the time of the disaster, and your choice for electronic funds transfer. Providing us with your pre-disaster annual gross income, reduces the processing time and directs your application to the programs best suited to meet your needs.

* How many dependents do you have including yourself?

*

Before taxes are deducted, what is your family's pre-disaster income?

Enter numbers only, no dollar sign, no commas, and no decimal point or cents. Example: Enter income as "55000" NOT "55,000.00."

* If you are found eligible for FEMA assistance, would you like funds directly deposited into your bank account?

There is no charge for this service.

Review Your Application

You are about to submit your application to FEMA. Please review all information very carefully. You will only be able to make limited changes after you submit your application.

If you need to make changes, click Edit and go to the page(s) you need. After you correct and save the information, you will return to this review.

Once everything is correct, click Submit Application

By clicking "Submit", I certify that:

- The information I entered on my FEMA application is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
- I understand that FEMA or the state, territory, or tribal authorities may require me to return some or all funds issued to me if any of the following statements are true:
 - I received funds from insurance or other sources for the same loss.
 - I did not use FEMA, state, territory, or tribal funds for its intended purpose.
 - I received the funds in error.
- I authorize FEMA to verify all information I entered on my application about my main home, income, identity, and dependents to determine eligibility for assistance.
- I authorize FEMA, state, territory, or tribal authorities to request my personal information from sources such as my insurance company or financial institution.
- It is important that you understand your registration becomes a legal document. FEMA may use external sources to verify the accuracy of the information you enter. If you intentionally hide information to get assistance, it's a violation of federal and state laws. This can carry severe criminal and civil penalties. Penalties may include a fine of up to $250,000, imprisonment, or both (18 U.S.C § 287, 1001, and 3571).
