Request to Transfer a Segal Education Award Amount (#1)

Use this form if you wish to transfer all or part of your unused education award to your child, foster or step child, or step/grandchild. To transfer an education award, you must (1) have earned the award in an approved national service position; and (2) have been aged 55 or older on the date you began the approved term of service. You can transfer an award to no more than two individuals. You may revoke any unused balance of the transferred award prior to its expiration. You can transfer an award only once, unless the transfer was declined in part or in full or you revoke the transfer in part or in full. The recipient of the award is bound by CNCS legislation, regulation, and policies regarding the use of a Segal Education Award. Select the help button for additional information on award transfer criteria and constraints.
