

Instructions for
Application for Modification of International
Signaling Point Code
Office of International Affairs

SPC-MOD
GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Purpose of Form

This form is used to request modification of an existing international signaling point code (ISPC) assignment for Signaling System No. 7 networks, under the International Telecommunication Union, ITU-T Recommendation Q.708 \(03/99\). Under ITU-T Recommendation Q.708, an ISPC(s) can be assigned to signaling point operators by each Member State's designated Administrator in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Member State and ITU-T Recommendation Q.708.

The Commission is the administrator of ISPCs for the United States and administers all ISPCs. Through this form, the Commission will collect information concerning the proposed request for modification of an ISPC assignment and will determine whether to grant the application.

Who Must File This Form and When

A signaling point operator with its own switch that seeks to provide services over the international Signaling System No. 7 network and that has an existing ISPC assignment must file this form within 30 days of any changes it makes to the information submitted in connection with its original ISPC application. Such changes include, without limitation, signaling point operator name change, change in the location where the signaling point is in operation, and change of contact person. Every entity seeking to modify its ISPC assignment must use this form.

Description of Form

This form consists of a main form and the ability to file an attachment to support the request. The Applicant is encouraged to upload a single document in machine readable format, including all required information. The Applicant must fill in all required fields, upload required documents, make all required certifications, and sign the form before submitting the application.

Information Current and Complete

Information filed in the application with the Commission must be kept current and complete under section 1.65 of the Commission's rules, 47 CFR § 1.65. The Applicant or the party to the application must notify the Commission regarding any substantial and significant changes in the information furnished in the application while it remains pending. Under ITU-T, Recommendation Q.708, the Applicant must also inform the Commission of any change of information after an ISPC is assigned (e.g., a change of the city where the code is implemented).

Applicants should refer to the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996. The Debt Collection Act requires all federal agencies ensure that no debtors to the Federal government obtain any licenses or other benefits from the FCC. To ensure this, the Commission must collect FRN information to correlate its Applicants with any outstanding Federal debt that they might have incurred in other dealings with the Federal government. For additional information, see the FCC's Debt Collection webpage, <https://www.fcc.gov/licensing-databases/fees/debt-collection-improvement-act-implementation>.

FILING INSTRUCTIONS FOR MAIN SPC-MOD FORM

Item 1. Enter the file number for the application that is being modified.

Item 2. The Applicant must check the box to acknowledge that it has or will attach a narrative statement describing the changes to the ISPC assignment/application being made in this modification.

The current information for the license ISPC assignment (the information provided in the original application plus any changes submitted in a prior amendment) should be pre-populated in the form.

Certain information will not pre-populate. The Applicant will need to enter a new “Brief Description of Application.” For example, “Modification to SPC-NEW-XXXXXXXX-XXXXX, to change the city where code is implemented.” A fee is associated with the filing of SPC-MOD applications, so the Applicant will need to complete Item 6 (Application Fees). The fee code for SPC-MOD is DAH. The Applicant will need to re-certify the application and provide the required information for signing the application. The Applicant will also need to upload an attachment that describes the changes being made to the underlying license, as described in Item A.2. above.

The Applicant should change any information that it needs to, and/or upload any new or revised attachments. To see the instructions for the original license application, click on the link below:
