Camp Rules

- Respect the adults, the other students, the materials and the classroom space. This includes but is not limited to:
  - Students will follow the directions of the camp staff.
  - Students will use appropriate language.
  - Students will keep their hands to themselves.
  - Students will treat the materials with care.
- Electronics are permitted only during breaks and lunch time.
- Students will refrain from touching electronics or materials that do not belong to them.

Consequences for not following the rules:

- Warning
- Cannot participate in an activity
- Call to parent - possibly have child picked up for the day
- Consideration for dismissal from the camp

Dress Code

- No sheer fabric of any kind
- Jeans or khaki pants
- Shorts, skirts or dresses that are at least thigh length
- Non-graphics shirts
  - No spaghetti strap tops
  - Tank tops are okay
- Flat and closed-toed shoes only.
  - These are required for base tours.
  - Flip-flops, “Crocs”, sandals and clogs are not permitted.
    - ❖ Some activities may get a little messy, so please dress accordingly.

Electronics

- No liquids at tables with government electronics.
- USB devices, CDs and DVDs are prohibited.
- Students are restricted from taking any photographs or videos while on base.
- Students are restricted from accessing any websites other than those directed by the camp leaders.

Lunch & Snacks

- Students are expected to bring their lunches and snacks, and are expected to remain on premises. The schedule does not allow for time to go out to eat.
- The classroom space does not have a refrigerator or microwave, so please plan accordingly.
- Due to student allergies, foods containing peanuts and other nuts are prohibited.

Health Issues

- Due to fragrance sensitivities, please refrain from using colognes and perfumes.
- Notify Ms. Krater if the student:
  - Needs to take medications during the day
  - Has any medical conditions of which they need to be aware

Travel Communications

- Carpooling

- If the student will be carpooling with other campers or signed in/out by someone other than the parent/guardian on the registration form, please bring a signed note on the first day of camp to authorize the E3 Camp Leaders to release the student into the other responsible driver's custody.
  - All individuals picking up a student will need to present a valid government issued ID.
- If something happens and the student is going to be more than 15 minutes late or absent, please communicate promptly by phone with us:
    - Crystal Krater at (240) 717-6777 or
    - Ellen Servetnick at (240) 572-6018.

Base Access Required

- Base Personnel Security requires that ALL students' parents or guardians have base access via a Military or Dependent ID, CAC, or a Visitor's Pass. Parents or guardians must have the pass on their person at all times while on station.
- If the driver does not have base access, please refer to the next slide for details on getting a temporary Visitor's Pass.
