Section 205(j) of the Social Security Act, as amended, allows us to collect this information. Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the information may prevent us from selecting the representative payee(s) you designate to act on your behalf.

We will use the information you provide to update and maintain your representative payee(s). We may also share the information for the following purposes, called routine uses:

- To third party contacts, where necessary, to establish or verify information provided by representative payees or representative payee applicants; and

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.
