FDIC CONTRACTOR REPRESENTATIONS AND CERTIFICATIONS

PREAMBLE:

Contractors receiving awards from the FDIC are subject to the provisions of 12 Code of Federal Regulations Chapter III, Part 366, which may be found at: <http://www.fdic.gov/buying/goods/acquisition/index.html>. The representations and certifications set out in this solicitation / document must be completed by an official authorized to bind the offeror, and must be returned with its proposal. These representations and certifications concern matters within the jurisdiction of an agency of the United States, and the making of a false, fictitious, or fraudulent certification may render the offeror and certifying official subject to prosecution under 18 United States Code §§ 1001, 1007, and 1014. (For purposes of these certifications, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) is considered an agency of the United States only with respect to its rights and remedies under Title 18 of the United States Code). In addition, any misrepresentations or false, fictitious, or fraudulent certifications may render the offeror and the certifying official subject to administrative remedies available to the FDIC, which include suspension and/or exclusion from contracting, or termination of the contract, (12 CFR 366.16; 12 CFR Part 367).

The offeror must provide notice to the Contracting Officer, or the FDIC point of contact for the solicitation, within 10 business days of discovery or at any time prior to contract award, if the contractor learns that one or more of its representations and certifications were erroneous when submitted or have become erroneous by reason of changed circumstances.

The signature of the offeror in the Signature section of this document constitutes the making of the applicable representations and certifications.

The applicable representations and certifications will be incorporated by reference into any contract awarded to the offeror pursuant to this solicitation.

(3) The small business size standard for a concern which submits an offer in its own name, other than on a construction or service contract, but which proposes to furnish a product which it did not itself manufacture, is 500 employees.

b. Representation.

This acquisition is not a Small-Business Set-Aside. However, for general statistical purposes, the offeror represents as part of its quote or offer that it is, is not a small business concern.

FDIC CONTRACTOR REPRESENTATIONS AND CERTIFICATIONS

11. PROHIBITION ON CONTRACTING WITH ENTITIES THAT REQUIRE CERTAIN INTERNAL CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENTS OR STATEMENTS-REPRESENTATIONS

(Applicable to all acquisitions)

a. Definition. As used in this provision-

Internal confidentiality agreement or statement, subcontract, and subcontractor, are defined in the clause at 7.3.2-79, Prohibition on Requiring Certain Internal Confidentiality Agreements or Statements.

b. In accordance with section 743 of Division E, Title VII, of the Consolidated and Further Continuing Appropriations Act, 2015 (Pub. L. 113-235) and its successor provisions in subsequent appropriations acts (and as extended in continuing resolutions), Government agencies are not permitted to use funds to enter into contracts with an entity that requires employees or subcontractors of such entity seeking to report waste, fraud, or abuse to sign internal confidentiality agreements or statements prohibiting or otherwise restricting such employees or subcontractors from lawfully reporting such waste, fraud, or abuse to a designated investigative or law enforcement representative of a Federal department or agency authorized to receive such information.

c. The prohibition in paragraph (b) of this provision does not contravene requirements applicable to Standard Form 312, (Classified Information Nondisclosure Agreement), Form 4414 (Sensitive Compartmented Information Nondisclosure Agreement), or any other form governing the nondisclosure of classified information.

d. Representation. By submission of its offer, the Offeror represents that it will not require its employees or subcontractors to sign or comply with internal confidentiality agreements or statements prohibiting or otherwise restricting such employees or subcontractors from lawfully reporting waste, fraud, or abuse related to the performance of a Government contract to a designated investigative or law enforcement representative of a Federal department or agency authorized to receive such information (e.g., agency Office of the Inspector General).

12. CERTIFICATION REGARDING WHISTLEBLOWER RIGHTS AND REMEDIES

(Applicable to acquisitions over $250,000)

The Contractor certifies to the following:

a. It is committed to protecting whistleblower rights and remedies under 41 U.S.C. § 4712.

b. It has informed and will continue to inform, or will inform during the course of this contract, its employees and any subcontractor and its employees, in writing, in the predominant language of the workforce, of employee whistleblower rights and protections under 41 U.S.C. § 4712.

13. SIGNATURE

By signature hereto, the offeror certifies that all of the representations and certifications contained in its proposal are complete and accurate as required by this solicitation, and that it is aware of the penalty prescribed in 18 U.S.C. § 1001 for making false statements in proposals. The offeror also agrees to notify the FDIC in writing, within 10 days, after discovering that it or any person performing services under an FDIC contract has any of the disqualifying conditions contained within the representations and certifications. Such notification shall contain a detailed description of the disqualifying condition and may include a statement of how the offeror intends to resolve such condition. Further, the offeror by signature hereto gives express authorization and consent to the FDIC for the FDIC to release information contained herein to licensing authorities in the FDIC's examination of the contractor's compliance with FDIC non-ethics contracting regulations.
