TITLE OF INFORMATION COLLECTION: CJIS Division Virtual Training Registration-UCR

PURPOSE:

 To collect basic registration information from authorized federal, state, local, and tribal criminal justice agencies interested in attending one or more web-based Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program virtual training sessions.

DESCRIPTION OF RESPONDENTS:

Federal, state, local, and tribal criminal justice practitioners who are currently participating in the UCR program or those who are interested in or working toward participating in the UCR Program. The registration form serves the purpose of allowing a registrant to specify interest in a specific time/date while providing the UCR Program's external trainers sufficient information about the registrant to confirm their authorized attendance in the class.

The UCR Program is a voluntary program in which university and college, city, county, state, tribal and federal law enforcement agencies participate by submitting their crime data and law enforcement data. The data submitted is used to generate crime statistics which can then be utilized by vast categories of groups and individuals to include law enforcement agencies, students, researchers, the media, and the public.
