

Department of Justice
Office of Community Oriented Policing Services
Customer Satisfaction Survey 2022

Introduction

The U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS Office) is committed to providing you, our customers, with services that meet your needs. Gathering your feedback helps to ensure that we are delivering on our commitment to you. To this end, we have commissioned the CFI Group, an independent third-party research group, to conduct a ten-minute survey that asks if your COPS Office awards have impacted your community policing efforts and ability to advance public safety. The survey will also help the COPS Office determine your satisfaction with our customer service and identify ways we can improve our services to you.

The CFI Group will treat all information you provide as confidential. All information you provide will be combined with information from other respondents for research and reporting purposes. Although your individual responses will not be released, please do not include any personally identifiable information about yourself or third parties in your submission. This survey will take approximately 10 minutes of your time. The COPS Office is thoroughly committed to providing exemplary service and sincerely appreciates your involvement to help us achieve our goal of continuing to provide quality service. This survey is authorized by the U.S. Office of Management and Budget Control No. 1090-0007, which expires September 30, 2021.

Special Note: This survey includes questions on recipients' experience with the JustGrants system. On October 15, 2020, the U.S. Department of Justice and the COPS Office launched JustGrants. Through a multi-phased development approach, JustGrants will continually be improved to give our customers the best user experience. In addition, a new payment management system called Automated Standard Application for Payments (ASAP) became operational in 2021 and is part of this survey.

The COPS Office is thoroughly committed to providing exemplary service and sincerely appreciates your involvement to help us achieve our goal of continuing to provide quality service.

Thank you for participating in this survey!

The COPS Office provides award assistance to advance community policing and public safety in law enforcement agencies nationwide. COPS Office awards have increased the number of law enforcement officers interacting with members of the community, provided additional and more effective training to law enforcement officers, encouraged the development and implementation of innovative programs to permit members of the community to assist law enforcement agencies in the prevention of crime, and encouraged the development of new technologies to assist law enforcement agencies in preventing crime.

The COPS Office also provides publication products (such as guidebooks) to law enforcement and community members. COPS Office publications have encouraged the development and implementation of innovative programs to permit members of the community to assist law enforcement agencies in the prevention of crime. You can access these materials on the COPS Office website at <https://cops.usdoj.gov>.
