Important Notices

- Under 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(8) firearms may not be sold to or received by persons subject to a court order that: (A) was issued after a hearing of which the person received actual notice and had an opportunity to participate; (B) restrains such person from harassing, stalking or threatening an intimate partner or child of such intimate partner or person, or engaging in other conduct that would place an intimate partner in reasonable fear of bodily injury to the partner or child; and (C)(i) includes a finding that such person represents a credible threat to the physical safety of such intimate partner or child, or (ii) by its terms explicitly prohibits the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force against such intimate partner or child that would reasonably be expected to cause bodily injury. An "intimate partner" is a person defined in section 921(a)(32).
- Under 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(9) firearms may not be sold to or received by persons who have been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence as defined in section 921(a)(33).

Additional Information

Applications for restoration of firearms privileges must include the following information where applicable. Please note that any record or document of a court or other government entity or official required to be furnished as indicated below shall be certified by the court or other government entity or official as a true copy.

- (1) In the case of an applicant having been convicted of a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year, a copy of the indictment or information on which the applicant was convicted, the judgement of conviction or record of any plea of nolo contendere, or plea of guilty or finding of guilt by the court must be provided.
- (2) In the case of an applicant under indictment or information, a copy of the indictment or information must be provided.
- (3) In the case of an applicant who has been adjudicated a mental defective or committed to a mental institution, the following must be provided with your application: a copy of the order of a court, board commission or other lawful authority that made the adjudication or ordered the commitment; any petition that sought to have the applicant so adjudicated or committed; any medical records reflecting the reasons for commitment and diagnoses of the applicant; and, any court order or finding of a court, board, commission, or other lawful authority showing the applicant's discharge from commitment, restoration of mental competency, and the restoration of rights.
- (4) In the case of an applicant who has been discharged from the Armed Forces under dishonorable conditions, a copy of the applicant's summary of service record (Department of Defense Form 214), charge sheet (Department of Defense Form 458), and final court martial order must be provided.
- (5) In the case of an applicant who is subject to a protection order that restrains that individual from threatening an intimate partner, a copy of the court order, court record, and other records reflecting relevant information including the terms and duration of the order, the identities of the parties, and the parties' opportunity for a hearing and/or hearing date.
- (6) In the case of an applicant who has been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence, a copy of the indictment or information on which the applicant was convicted, the judgment of conviction or record of any plea of nolo contendere or plea of guilty or finding of guilt by the court. Documents incorporated by reference in the indictment, information, judgment of conviction, or other official record(s) also should be included (e.g., police reports). Records should reflect information including date of conviction, specific statutory violation, location of court, and identity of victim.
- (7) In the case of an applicant who, having been a citizen of the United States, has renounced his or her citizenship, a copy of the formal renunciation of nationality before a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States in a foreign state, or before an officer designated by the Attorney General when the United States was in a state of war, must be provided. See 8 U.S.C. 1481(a)(5) and (6).
- (8) In the case of an applicant who is a lawful alien, several certifications may be required. Please contact ATF for sample certifications.

Privacy Act Information

The following information is provided pursuant to Sections 3 and 7(b) of the Privacy Act of 1974:

- 1. Authority. Solicitation of this information is made pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Chapter 44. Disclosure of this information by the applicant is mandatory if the applicant wishes to seek relief from disabilities, i.e., restoration of firearms privileges.
- Purposes. To determine whether the applicant is eligible to apply for relief from disabilities under 18 U.S.C. § 925(c); and to determine whether the restoration of privileges should be granted.
- 3. Routine Uses. The information will be used by ATF to make the determinations set forth in paragraph 2. In addition, the information may be disclosed to other Federal, State, foreign and local law enforcement and regulatory agency personnel to verify information on the application and to aid in the performance of their duties with respect to the regulation of firearms and anumunition. The information may further be disclosed to the Justice Department if it appears that the furnishing of false information may constitute violation of Federal Law.
- 4. Effects of Not Supplying the Information Requested. Failure to supply complete information will delay processing and may cause denial of the application.
- Disclosure of Social Security Number. Disclosure of the individual's social security number is voluntary. Solicitation of this information is made pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 925(e), and E.O. 9397, Nov. 22, 1943, and may be used to verify the identity of the applicant.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

This request is in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. The information is required in order to determine whether or not firearms privileges may be restored. It is used to conduct an investigation to establish if it is likely that the applicant will act in a manner dangerous to public safety or contrary to public interest. The information is required in order to restore privileges under 18 U.S.C. 925(c).

The estimated average burden associated with this collection of information is 30 minutes per respondent or recordkeeper, depending on individual circumstances. Comments concerning the accuracy of this burden estimate and suggestions for reducing this burden should be addressed to Reports Management Officer, Document Services, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, Washington, DC 20226.
