Your participation in the National Survey on Drug Use and Health (NSDUH) will help shape the future of your community's health.

Organizations who use this information include:

THE TREVOR PROJECT

 Partnership to End Addiction

Asian American
Legal Defense
and Education Fund

Join the nearly 70,000 people who are interviewed each year for this important study.

We participated so our community is represented where it matters.

I participated because I wanted my state to better respond to the opioid crisis.

I appreciate getting to meet diverse individuals from different communities.
