Appeals Council Request for Review

Getting Ready

Before you start, you should gather the information you need to complete your appeal, including:

- The notice you received from SSA in the mail informing you of our decision. Without the notice you will not be able to complete this appeal online.
- Supporting documents including forms, legal documents, and written statements
- Name, address, and phone number of your personal appointed representative if you have one

Being prepared will help you spend less time completing your appeal online.

You will be able to provide supporting documents both online and by mail. Certain documents we can only accept as originals or certified copies; you will need to bring or mail them to your local Social Security Office.

Submit a Request for Review

Completing your appeal online may take 10 to 15 minutes, but you will not be able to leave the application and come back to it later. Your answers will be saved automatically as you go through your appeal. The session will time out after 30 minutes of inactivity.

2.1.1. Information You Need

Information You Need to Complete an Appeals Council Request for Review (HA-520)

If you recently received a hearing decision or dismissal concerning your Social Security or Supplemental Security Income you may request an appeal online.

The checklist below will help you gather the information you may need to appeal our decision.

Note: Please print this page to use while you gather your materials.

Gather Personal Information

- Name, Social Security number, address, and phone number.
- The date on the decision notice you received.
- The name, address, and phone number of your personal appointed representative if you have one.

Gather Supporting Documents

If you have documents that support your appeal, they will help Social Security make a decision on your claim. Electronic documents may be uploaded with your online appeal request. Documents that may be uploaded include:

- Pay stubs, W-2s, federal tax returns
- Letters from your employer about your retirement or reduction in hours of work

Certain documents must be originals or certified copies and cannot be uploaded during your online appeal request, including:

- Birth certificate, naturalization certificate, passport, marriage certificate, divorce decree

If you need to provide any of these documents to support your appeal, you should mail or bring them to your local Social Security Office. The originals will be returned to you.

After you submit your appeal, we will provide a cover sheet you can use to submit with any documents you want us to include with your request.

2.1.2. Appointed Representative

Definition: Appointed Representative

An appointed representative is an attorney or other legal representative, recognized by Social Security (SSA), who can assist individuals with their case or appeal and act upon their behalf.

Friends, family members, and others can help you with your appeal. However, if they are not your appointed representative, the answer to this question should be "no."

If you decide to have a representative, you must sign and submit a written statement to us appointing him or her to represent you in your dealings with Social Security. You may use form SSA-1696 \(Appointment of Representative\) and submit it to SSA.

To learn more on how to be represented, visit us at <http://mwww.ba.ssa.gov/representation/>

9.3.1. Attach Document – File Details

The screenshot shows a dialog box titled "File Details" with a close button (X) in the top right corner. It contains two main sections: "File Name:" and "Document Type:". The "File Name:" section has a text input field and a "Browse" button. The "Document Type:" section has a dropdown menu currently showing "--". At the bottom of the dialog are two buttons: "Save" (in blue) and "Cancel".

9.3.2. Drop Down List “Document Type”

This screenshot shows the same "File Details" dialog box, but with the "Document Type:" dropdown menu open. The dropdown list contains the following items: "--", "Appointment of Representative (SSA-1696)", "Attorney/Representative-Supplied Evidence", "Consent for Release of Information (SSA-3288)", "Direct Payment of Authorized Fees (SSA-1695)", "Fee Agreement", "Financial Document", "Good Cause for Late Filing", "Miscellaneous", "Representative Brief", "Representative Correspondence", and "Unknown or Not Applicable". The "--" option is currently selected and highlighted in blue.

9.5. Attach Files 3rd Party

The screenshot shows the Social Security Administration's website for an Appeals Council Request for Review. At the top left is the Social Security Administration logo and the text "Social Security Official Website of the U.S. Social Security Administration". Below this is the title "Appeals Council Request for Review". A navigation bar contains three tabs: "Identification" (with a green checkmark), "Request", and "Summary". The main content area is titled "Attach Files" and contains the question "Does Jane Doe have supporting documents?". There are four radio button options: "Yes, documents in electronic format.", "Yes, paper documents.", "Yes, both electronic and paper documents.", and "No, no documents to submit.". At the bottom left are "Next" and "Previous" buttons. On the right side, a sidebar titled "In this section..." shows a list with "Request for Review" (checked) and "Attach Files".

9.6. Attach Files 3rd Party – If either “Yes, paper documents” OR “No, no documents to submit” is selected, File Details panel is not shown. User is taken to Summary.

This screenshot is identical to the one above, but with the "Yes, paper documents." radio button selected. The "Next" button is now highlighted in blue, indicating it is the active action. The "Request for Review" and "Attach Files" items in the sidebar remain visible.
