INSTRUCTIONS - DS-7699, AFFIDAVIT OF RELATIONSHIP (AOR) FOR MINORS WHO ARE NATIONALS OF EL SALVADOR, GUATEMALA, OR HONDURAS

NOTE: Read these instructions carefully. If you do not follow the instructions, the U.S. Department of State, or its designated representative, may return your AOR for clarification or correction. By completing this form you are claiming a relationship with a child(ren) abroad in order to assist the U.S. Government in determining whether that child/those children should be granted access to the United States under the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program (USRAP). The AOR itself is not an application on behalf of your child(ren) for admission to the U.S. as a refugee under the USRAP or a petition for any immigration benefit under U.S. law. Completion of this AOR does not guarantee that your child(ren) will be found qualified to apply for refugee admission or that they ultimately will be admitted to the United States. Additionally, the information on this form may also be used by the U.S. Government to verify information provided by these individuals in relation to any other immigration benefit they may subsequently seek under U.S. law and other uses as described in the Privacy Act Statement on the AOR and in Part 10 of these instructions below. The U.S. Government investigates claimed family relationships and verifies the validity of documents. Criminal prosecutions may be sought when family relationships are falsified to obtain immigration benefits.

1. Purpose of This Form

The DS-7699 provides a means for certain persons in the United States to claim a relationship with a child(ren) residing in Honduras, El Salvador, and Guatemala and to assist the U.S. Department of State in determining whether that child/those children should be granted access to the USRAP for family reunification purposes. Resettlement agency representatives, who assist persons with this form, are knowledgeable about who may file this form. This form also assists the U.S. Department of Homeland Security's U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to verify parent-child and legal guardian-child relationships during refugee case adjudication. The main purpose of the DS-7699 is for you (the Qualifying Parent or Qualifying Legal Guardian) to provide biographical information about children overseas who may subsequently seek access to the USRAP for verification by the U.S. Government.

2. Who May File This Affidavit?

You may file the DS-7699 if you are at least 18 years of age and are in the United States in one of the following categories:

- a. Permanent Resident Status
- b. Temporary Protected Status Grantee
- c. Parolee for whom parole has been authorized for at least one year
- d. Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) Recipient
- e. Deferred Action (non-DACA) Recipient
- f. Deferred Enforced Departure Recipient
- g. Witholding of Removal Grantee
- h Pending I-589 "Application for Asylum and Withholding of Removal" filed before April 11, 2023
- i. Pending I-918 "Application for U Nonimmigrant Status" filed before April 11, 2023
- j. Pending I-914 "Application for T Nonimmigrant Status" filed before April 11, 2023

3. Who Is Qualified to Apply for Refugee Admission Based on this AOR?

Type A: Your unmarried child(ren) and/or child(ren) for whom you have legal guardianship who are under 21 years of age when the AOR is filed with the Refugee Processing Center (and who continue to be unmarried at the time of admission to the U.S. at the port of entry) who are nationals of El Salvador, Guatemala, or Honduras and are not residing in the United States may be qualified to apply for refugee admission to the United States under the USRAP. Please list them in Section II part A of the AOR as the Qualifying Child.

Type B: The Qualifying Child's unmarried child(ren) under 21 years of age may be included on the Qualifying Child's refugee application and may be admitted as derivative beneficiaries with the Qualifying Child as a refugee if otherwise admissible to the United States. These individuals would derive their refugee status from the Qualifying Child and do not have to independently establish a persecution claim. Please list them in Section II of the AOR as Type B relatives. If the Qualifying Child is approved for parole, his/her unmarried child(ren) under 21 years of age would also be considered for parole.

Type C: The legal parent of a Qualifying Child may, on a case-by-case basis, also be considered qualified to apply for refugee admission in connection with a Qualifying Child if that parent:

1. lives in the same household as the Qualifying Child;

AND,

2. is part of the same economic unit as the Qualifying Child;

AND,

3. maintains a documented marriage to you (the Qualifying Parent), the filer of this form. Please list them in Section II of the AOR as Type C relatives. A legal parent and/or sibling cannot derive his/her refugee status from the Qualifying Child and therefore must independently establish that he/she qualifies as a refugee. If the Type C legal parent has an unmarried child(ren) under 21 who is not your child and has not been legally adopted by you, you may also add them in Section II as a Type C relative. If the Type C relative is approved for parole, the Type C-3 relative would also be considered for parole. A Qualifying Legal Guardian cannot include a Type C relative on the AOR, either in relation to themselves or in relation to a Qualifying Child.

Type D: The biological parent of a Qualifying Child that is not legally married to you (the Qualifying Parent) may, on a case-by-case basis, also be considered qualified to apply for admission in connection with a Qualifying Child if that individual:

lives in the same household as the Qualifying Child;
 AND,

2. is part of the same economic unit as the Qualifying Child.

Please list him/her in Section II of the AOR as Type D relatives.

A biological parent cannot derive his/her refugee status from the Qualifying Child and therefore must independently establish that he/she qualifies as a refugee. If the biological parent has a legal spouse that is not you (the Qualifying Parent) or an unmarried child(ren) under 21 who is not your child, you may also add them in Section II as a Type D-2 (for spouse) or Type D-3 (for child) relative. The Type D-2 and/or Type D-3 relative would derive his/her status from the Type D relative and does not have to independently establish that he/she qualifies as a refugee. If the Type D relative is approved for parole, the Type D-2 and/or Type D-3 relative would also be considered for parole. A Qualifying Legal Guardian cannot include a Type D relative, either in relation to themselves or in relation to a Qualifying Child.

Type E: The primary caregiver of a Qualifying Child that does not qualify for Type C (legal parent married to Qualifying Parent) or Type D (biological parent not married to Qualifying Parent) may, on a case-by-case basis, also be considered qualified to apply for admission in connection with a Qualifying Child if that individual:

1. lives in the same household as the Qualifying Child;

 $\Delta$ NID

2. is part of the same economic unit as the Qualifying Child;

AND,

3. is the Qualifying Child's primary caregiver;

AND,

4. is at least 18 years of age;

AND,

5. is related to you (the Qualifying Parent) biologically or by legal marriage;

OR:

6. is related to the Qualifying Child via a biological, step, or adoptive relationship.

Please list him/her in Section II of the AOR as a Type E relative.

A caregiver cannot derive his/her refugee status from the Qualifying Child and therefore must independently establish that he/she qualifies as a refugee. If the caregiver has a legal spouse and/or an unmarried child(ren) under 21, you may also add them in Section II as a Type E-2 (for spouse) or Type E-3 (for child) relative. The Type E-2 and/or Type E-3 relative would derive his/her status from the Type E relative and does not have to independently establish that he/she qualifies as a refugee. If the Type E relative is approved for parole, the Type E-2 and/or Type E-3 relative would also be considered for parole. A Qualifying Legal Guardian can include a Type C relative, but not based on solely a familial relationship to the Qualifying Legal Guardian.

Note

- Only one Type E relative and his/her derivative(s) may be listed on the form unless the Qualifying Children listed on the form live in different households. Each Qualifying Child that lives in a separate household from another listed Qualifying Child would be allowed to list one separate primary caregiver.
- If the Qualifying Child's married and/or age 21 or older sibling is the primary caregiver of the Qualifying Child, he/she can be listed as a Type E relative if there is no other qualifying caregiver. See below under Type F for additional information.

Type F: The Qualifying Child's married siblings and/or siblings over 21 years of age may, on a case-by-case basis, also be considered qualified to apply for admission in connection with a Qualifying Child.

Please list them in Section II of the AOR as Type F relatives.

Married siblings and/or siblings over 21 years of age cannot derive their refugee status from the Qualifying Child and must independently establish that they qualify as a refugee. If the married siblings and/or siblings over 21 years of age have a legal spouse and/or an unmarried child(ren) under 21 you may also add them in Section II as a Type F-2 (for spouse) or Type F-3 (for child) relative. A Type F-2 and/or F-3 relative would derive his/her refugee status from the Type F applicant and does not have to independently establish that he/she qualifies as a refugee.

Note: A married sibling and/or sibling over 21 years of age may instead be listed on the form as a Type E relative if he/she is the primary caregiver of the Qualifying Child and meets the other criteria for a Type E relative. This would preclude another caregiver from being listed as a Type E relative on the form for that Qualifying Child. The Qualifying Child's married and/or age 21 or older siblings can also be understood to mean a Qualifying Parent's married and/or age 21 or older children.

Please note:

- Type B to F relatives and any of their derivatives (as described above) must be interviewed by USCIS with the Qualifying Child. If the Qualifying Child and a type B to F relative(s) are unable to be interviewed together, only the Qualifying Child would receive a USCIS refugee interview, and the other individuals on the AOR will be unable to proceed.
- Legal Parent: In order to be claimed on this AOR as a legal parent of the Qualifying Child in Section II, the marriage between you and this other parent of the Qualifying Child must have existed on the date you completed this form and must continue at the time of admission to the United States.
- Adopted Child: In order to be claimed on this AOR as a Qualifying Child or as a derivative in Section II, an adopted child must have been in the legal custody of and resided with the adopting parent or parents for at least two years and been legally adopted before his/her 16th birthday.
- Stepchildren: In order to be claimed on this AOR as a Qualifying Child or as a derivative in Section II, the marriage creating the step relationship must have occurred before the child's 18th birthday.
- In all cases, in order for the child(ren) of the Qualifying Parent to be considered Qualifying Children, they must be unmarried and under 21 years of age when the AOR is filed with the RPC and continue to be unmarried at the time of admission to the United States at the port of entry.
- A Qualifying Legal Guardian relationship means the assumption of responsibility for a minor by an adult under the laws of the state and under the order or approval of a court of law or other appropriate government entity. This provision requires that a legal process involving the courts or other recognized government entity take place. This formal grant of legal guardianship or custody must be issued by a country exercising jurisdiction over the child and in accordance with the laws where it was obtained, and must authorize the Qualifying Legal Guardian, or an individual or entity acting on their behalf, to take the child out of their country of nationality and permit the child to reside with the legal guardian in the United States. An informal custodian or guardianship document, such as a power of attorney document or notarized or sworn statement will not serve as sufficient evidence of a qualifying legal guardian relationship.

6. What Additional Information May Need to be Provided to Establish a Family Relationship?

If you claimed a biological relationship, you and your biological child(ren) listed in Section II of the AOR will be required to provide a DNA sample at a later date to establish your biological relationship. A DNA sample will also be required from a biological parent of a Qualifying Child that is not legally married to you (the Qualifying Parent) if he/she is listed in Section II of the AOR. A DNA sample will also be required between you (the Qualifying Parent) and the married and/or age 21 or older son(s) or daughter(s) if they are listed on the AOR. A DNA sample will also be required between you, if you are a Qualifying Parent, and caregiver if the biological relationship can be verified through DNA testing (ie. biological grandparent). You will receive a notice providing full instructions on how to arrange for DNA relationship testing by the Resettlement Support Center. By signing your name on the DS-7699, you are agreeing to provide the DNA sample when requested by an official of the U.S. Government, or its designated representatives. Please note that if you or your claimed family members fail to submit DNA evidence upon request, your family members' access to the USRAP may be terminated. An officer of USCIS will make the final determination regarding whether a bona fide relationship exists between you and your relative(s) at the time of the interview for refugee status.
