

Form G-1566-004 Extension Responses to 60-day FRN Public Comments

Public Comments (regulations.gov): USCIS-2021-0021

60-day FRN Citation (federalregister.gov): 88 FR 38085

Publish Dates: Jun 12, 2023 – August 11, 2023

Comment #/Topic	Commenter ID	Comment	USCIS Response
1.		Commenter: Alec Ferretti
	USCIS-2021-0021-0017	The form to request a CNE should be maintained exactly as it is. It asks all of the necessary information, and its no cost filing provides a great public service. This allows individuals to request documentation from the government without worrying about the financial burden it would cause.	Response: We appreciate your feedback and will continue to strive to improve USCIS processes while meeting the needs of our customers.
2.		Jennifer Reiff
	USCIS-2021-0021-0018	The current form/process for receiving a Certificate of Non-Existence should not be changed (except, if possible, to receive results faster). The most recent changes to the form—which made it clearer to fill out and includes the option to receive a CNE for a US-born woman who lost citizenship by marriage—were very useful. Please keep the process free and easy to request.	Response: We appreciate your feedback and will continue to strive to improve USCIS processes while meeting the needs of our customers.
3.		Commenter: Rich Venezia
	USCIS-2021-0021-0019	I am writing to support that USCIS maintain the current collection of information for G-1566, Request for a Certificate of Non-Existence. The form is clear, asks all the information necessary for USCIS to provide a determination, and provides clear instructions on how the requestor should go about filling out the form and sending it to USCIS, which signatures are necessary, etc. This version is much clearer than the previous unofficial version. The fact that this form is free also is a great service to the public. I recommend no changes to the current system.	Response: We appreciate your feedback and will continue to strive to improve USCIS processes while meeting the needs of our customers.