Capital Advance Program Use Agreement

For Section 202 of the Housing Act of 1959 or Section 811 of the National Affordable Housing Act

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Office of Housing Federal Housing Commissioner

OMB Approval No. 2502-0470 (exp. 8/31/2013)

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1 hour per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. HUD may not collect this information, and you are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

This information collection is necessary to ensure that viable projects are developed. It is important to obtain information from applicants to assist HUD in determining if nonprofit organizations initially funded continue to have the financial and administrative capacity needed to develop a project and that the project design meets the needs of the residents. The Department will use this information to determine if the project meets statutory requirements with respect to the development and operation of the project, as well as ensuring the continued marketability of the projects. This information is required in order to obtain benefits. This information is considered non-sensitive and no assurance of confidentiality is provided.

meaning as set forth in the definitions in 24 CFR Part 891.

- 3. Use Restriction. The Project shall be used solely as rental housing for very-low income elderly or persons with disabilities.
- 4. Transfer. HUD has been granted and is possessed of an interest in the above described Project such that the Owner shall remain seized of the title to said property and refrain from transferring, conveying, assigning, leasing, mortgaging, pledging, or otherwise encumbering or permitting or suffering any transfer, conveyance, assignment, lease, mortgage, pledge or other encumbrance of said property or any part thereof without the release of said covenants by HUD. The Owner has constituted HUD as its attorney-in-fact to transfer the project to another private nonprofit corporation in the event of default under the Capital Advance Agreement or the Regulatory Agreement. The Owner may transfer the Project during the term of this Agreement only with the prior written approval of HUD, and any such grantee shall assume the obligations under this Agreement as a condition of any transfer. In any event, this Agreement shall be binding upon the Owner's successors and assigns.
- upon any conveyance or transfer made by the Owner of any real or personal property which is determined to be excess to the needs of the Project, or (2) upon any instrument of conveyance or dedication of property, or any interest therein, for use as streets, alleys, or other public rights-of-way, or for the establishment, operation and maintenance of public utilities, or (3) upon any instrument transferring or conveying an interest therein, or (4) upon any instrument of release made by the Owner of the Project shall be effective to release such property from the restrictive covenants hereby created.
- Enforcement. In the event of a breach or threatened breach of any of the provisions of this Agreement, any eligible tenant or applicant for occupancy, or the Secretary or his or her successors or delegates, may institute proper legal action to enforce performance of such provisions, to enjoin any acts in violation of such provisions, to recover whatever damages can be proven, and/or to obtain whatever other relief may be appropriate.
- 7. Severability. The invalidity, in whole or in part, of any of the provisions set forth above shall not affect or invalidate any remaining provisions.
