If you had paid a private company or individual to obtain the record on your behalf instead of using our service, which is free to most requesters, what was your reason?

- It was easier than requesting for it from NPRC directly
- I needed it in a hurry and they promised fast response time
- I didn't know NPRC's services are usually free to most requesters
- I searched for directions on-line and the web results lead me to the company/individual

With regards to the response letter or package we sent you, would you consider our response time to be:

- Faster than you've expected.
- As expected.
- Slower than you've expected.

If you've requested the DD 214 or equivalent document, we would have affixed them with a raised seal. Do you find this additional feature useful and necessary?

- Yes, raised seal copies are needed for my purpose.
- No, it doesn't make any difference to me, just as long as I received a copy.

If you could make one change that would improve the way NPRC handles requests for records or information, what would that be?
