

Table 1. Summary of Changes Estimated Annualized Burden Hours

Form, Page, Section, Question/Field	Change Proposed	Reason for Change Proposed
Prospective study of HIV-positive patients seeking STI testing	Decrease number of respondents from 1530 to 850	To reflect current study priorities and ensure the highest possible data quality at study completion.
Prospective study of HIV-positive patients seeking STI testing	Decrease number of respondents from 165 to 50	To reflect current study priorities and ensure the highest possible data quality at study completion.
RCT of POC NAT or Standard of Care for HIV-positive patients	Decrease number of respondents from 333 to 212	To reflect current study priorities and ensure the highest possible data quality at study completion.
POC NAT acceptability survey	Increase number of respondents from 117 to 500	To reflect current study priorities and ensure the highest possible data quality at study completion.
POC NAT acceptability survey, focus group, or interview	Increase number of respondents from 33 to 100	To reflect current study priorities and ensure the highest possible data quality at study completion.