Do I have to have a permit to conduct a demonstration or special event?

Yes, special events or demonstrations on parkland in the National Capital Area are governed by National Park Service (NPS) regulations found at 36 CFR 7.96.

How does the National Park Service define demonstrations and special events?

While the definitions are fully detailed at 36 CFR 7.96\(g\)\(1\)\(i\) and \(ii\), the following two terms are defined in these instructions:

DEMONSTRATION generally includes speechmaking, picketing, vigils, marching or religious services, etc., and all other like forms of conduct which is reasonably likely to draw a crowd or onlookers.

SPECIAL EVENT generally includes sports events, runs/races, parades, fairs, festivals, or any activity that is not a demonstration.

Which form should I fill out if I want to hold a demonstration or special event?

NPS Form 10-941, “Application for a Permit to Conduct a Demonstration or Special Event in Park Areas”, available via the park’s website at www.nps.gov/nama<sup>1</sup>, is used to request the use of the following areas governed by NPS regulations:

National Mall and Memorial Parks	Wolf Trap National Park for the Performing Arts

Applications are accepted no earlier than one year in advance of the proposed demonstration or special event (including set up and take down).

What is the deadline to submit an application<sup>2</sup>?

<sup>2</sup> Activities requiring structures 900 square feet or larger are encouraged to submit the application at least 20 days in advance to comply with NCA Fire Life Safety Requirement for Outdoor Events and Tent Use document review process.

How long does it take to obtain a permit?

Individuals and organizations are encouraged to contact the Division of Permits Management in advance of a proposed activity to determine if the space is already under permit to another group.

Upon receipt of your fully executed application, we will time and date stamp it as it is received. You will receive an acknowledgement your application was received and your assigned permit specialist at least three days after receipt of application or call 202-245-4715 for an update. The processing time from application to issuance of a permit varies depending on the scale of the activity. It can take anywhere from a couple of days for simple activities to a few months for more complex events. A meeting may be necessary to discuss the details associated with your proposed activity.

Does the National Park Service make any special allowances for small groups who wish to demonstrate?

Demonstrations involving 25 persons or fewer do NOT require a permit, provided other conditions required for the issuance of a permit are met:

- The group may NOT merely be an extension of another group already availing itself of the 25-person maximum.
- The demonstration may NOT unreasonably interfere with other demonstrations or special events, and
- The group may NOT erect temporary structures (other than small lecterns or speakers' platforms).
- However, the use of portable signs or banners is NOT restricted as long as they are handheld.

Is the solicitation of money or funds for donation allowed on park property?

Pursuant to 36 CFR 7.96(h) the in-person soliciting or demanding of money or funds for donation on Federal parkland is prohibited, unless it occurs as part of a permit issued for a demonstration or special event.

- Persons permitted to solicit must not give false or misleading information regarding their purpose or affiliations or give false or misleading information as to whether any item is available without donation.
- Exacting a payment or requesting a donation in exchange for merchandise constitutes a sale and is not allowed unless it comports with the NPS sales regulation found at 36 CFR 7.96(k).

What types of items can be sold on park property in conjunction with a special event or first amendment demonstration?

Pursuant to 36 CFR 7.96(k) only the following items are permitted to be sold on park property in conjunction with a special event or demonstration: books, bumper stickers, leaflets, pamphlets, buttons, and newspapers.

May foods be provided or sold during a special event or first amendment demonstration?

Temporary food and beverage services are available for events through the National Park Service concessioner. Permittee must work directly with the park concessions specialist and National Capital Area concessioner to facilitate the sale of food and beverages at a permitted event, including ethnic cultural food festivals. Commercially packaged food or beverages may not be sold directly by the permittee. However, permittee may provide free of charge commercially prepackaged food and beverages. Please note food service requires a separate 70-day application process and must meet Public Health standards.

Is it allowable to display and/or sell artwork during a special event or First Amendment demonstration?

As part of a permitted event, ethnic arts and crafts may be displayed but may not be sold. If your event includes such a display or exhibit, an artisan should be actually onsite to demonstrate the production of the particular art or craft as part of your activity.

Does the National Park Service offer guidelines to review for special events or First Amendment demonstrations?

Yes. While the National Capital Area's "Event Planning Guide"<sup>3</sup> goes into more detail, please note the following regarding costs associated with demonstration or special event applications:

Application Processing Cost:

- A one-time non-refundable application cost of $120.00 must accompany all SPECIAL EVENT applications.
- Special event applications will not be processed without the application processing payment.
- Payment is accepted by credit card, check, or money order.
- FIRST AMENDMENT applications are NOT subject to the application processing cost.

No special event application will be processed unless processing cost remittance has been provided with the application. The application processing cost represents the average cost incurred by the park in receiving, processing, initially reviewing, and distributing of applications to help ensure the information supplied is sufficient to inform a decision. Processing costs shall be reviewed each fiscal year.

Other Costs: There also may be charges for other costs associated with your proposed activity, incurred by the National Park Service and the United States Park Police. These charges are to reimburse the National Park Service for:

- Services,
- Resource damage caused by your activity, or
- Personnel deemed necessary to support your activity.

Depending on the size and scope of your proposed activity, a cost recovery deposit in the form of an irrevocable letter of credit, certified check, or money order, and/or documented liability insurance coverage may be required. Any costs will be discussed with the applicant, prior to issuing the permit.

United States Park Police Requirements:

Applications are also reviewed by the United States Park Police to determine if Park Police officers are required to be onsite for proposed event. If your event requires the service of the U.S. Park Police, you will be contacted directly by them to coordinate the appropriate arrangements. Payment for U.S. Park Police services must be made seven (7) days in advance of your event.

Are there special cost recovery requirements associated with demonstration or special event applications?

Cost Recovery Associated with Special Use and Public Gathering Permits:

- Government Accountability Office Report 5-410 requires agencies to more fully recover and collect costs associated with special use and public gathering permits
- Cost recovery program was implemented on October 1, 2006
- Initially included application processing costs, but now includes the recovery of additional costs associated with administration, management and monitoring of permitted activities

Monetary Cost Recovery Deposit:

Pursuant to long-standing practice, the NPS, National Capital Area, requires applicants to:

- Post a monetary cost recovery deposit prior to the event to cover costs incurred when NPS employees are required to work for event monitoring and for any needed site restoration following the event.
- The deposit amount is dependent on the size and scope of the event and will be discussed with the applicant before the permit is issued.
