RE: Non-Substantive Revision to Certified Statement for Deposit Insurance Assessment (OMB Control No. 3064-0057)

FDIC is correcting the following non-substantive items that were erroneously entered for this ICR:

- ICR Title: The FDIC is changing the Title of this Information Collection to read “Certified Statement for Deposit Insurance Assessment.” The title of this ICR was inadvertently not updated when the frequency of submission was changed from semiannual to quarterly and is currently still titled “Certified Statement for Semiannual Deposit Insurance Assessment.”
- IC Title: The FDIC is making the same change to the title of the single IC in this ICR to “Certified Statement for Deposit Insurance Assessment.” The title of the IC was inadvertently not updated when the frequency of submission was changed from semiannual to quarterly and is currently still titled “Certified Statement for Semiannual Deposit Insurance Assessment. The burden estimate and the name of the associated reporting form accurately reflect the quarterly frequency of response requirement.
