For the next Census, we are creating an option for people living in group quarters to report for themselves using an online questionnaire. Your response will help us to decide whether an online questionnaire will be a good fit for group quarters like yours.

Your response is completely confidential and voluntary. We will not be asking for any personal information about your residents, just your opinions about whether our plans would work for them.

Thank you for helping us with our planning for the next census.

Sincerely,

Judy G. Belton
Assistant Division Chief for Special Enumerations

We are planning to allow people living in group quarters to participate in the next census by completing their own online questionnaire. We need to hear your feedback on whether our plans will be a good fit for your residents.

We will not be asking for any personal information about your residents, and the opinions you share with us will be completely confidential.

Thank you for helping us make informed decisions that will affect you and your residents.

Sincerely,

Judy G. Belton
Assistant Division Chief for Special Enumerations

Contact 3: Second reminder email

Subject: Our 5-minute survey is due by [date]

Dear [first and last name or "Facility Manager"],

We are making plans for the next census to allow residents of group quarters to fill out their census form online. We are asking for the opinions of group quarters staff like you to understand how well these plans would work for your residents.

We are able to contact only a small number of group quarters, so your response is very important.
