(OMB Control Number: 1225-0059)

OMB Expiration Date: 02/29/2024

TITLE OF INFORMATION COLLECTION: Advisory Committee on Apprenticeship (ACA) Membership Solicitation

PURPOSE: The Secretary’s Advisory Committee on Apprenticeship (ACA) is a 27–30-member advisory board that provides advice and recommendations to the Department of Labor on ways to better utilize the apprenticeship training model. The ACA is authorized by the National Apprenticeship Act (the Fitzgerald Act), 29 U.S.C. 50a, which permits the Secretary of Labor (Secretary) to appoint a national advisory committee to serve without compensation. Members are appointed by the Secretary for two- or three-year terms. The ACA was reestablished on May 19, 2021, and there are currently 27 members.

The ACA Charter requires balanced representation of employers, labor organizations, and state/public entities. The current members are set to expire on September 15, 2023. To proactively maintain balance, the Department is requesting nominations for current and future vacancies to the ACA. ETA is developing an online application for interested individuals. Members of the public can begin submitting nominations in the summer of 2023. The application will allow candidates to apply for the 2023-2025 membership term. All nominations must be received before the current membership term expire.

This is the first request for the online ACA application form; however, ETA anticipates using the form to receive nominations electronically every two years.

The online membership Application Form gives apprenticeship stakeholders an easier more streamlined way to submit their interest and be considered for ACA membership. The form asks for the applicant’s: 1) contact information; 2) Registered Apprenticeship program experience; 3) commitment to undertake optional activities to promote, expand, and diversify Registered Apprenticeship over the upcoming year; and 4) willingness to allow DOL to display applicant’s organizational logo on DOL websites and promotional materials. It is also an opportunity for ETA/DOL to track submissions and make membership decisions.

Note that the information provided on this form is intended for public use, so there is no need or expectation for confidentiality.

DESCRIPTION OF RESPONDENTS: Respondents are individuals from public and private organizations with experience in Registered Apprenticeship (employers, labor organizations, industry associations, education organizations, workforce professionals, community-based organizations) who are interested in serving on the Secretary’s Advisory Committee on Apprenticeship (ACA) for a two-year period.
