

Dear Mr. Tester,

Thank you for agreeing to provide price information for the U.S. Import and Export Price Indexes, one of the nation's principal federal economic indicators. The U.S. Department of Labor invites you to complete your Import and Export Price Survey online through its secure internet data collection facility.

If you are not scheduled to provide data this month, we request that you still log on and complete the registration process. Registration only needs to be done once.

To begin, you will need to enter the temporary User ID below and password into our web application. The temporary password and link to our web application will be sent to you in a separate email for security purposes.

You may receive these emails at the beginning of each month until you log on and create your account.

Your USER ID: 205R1111111A

- If you would like your password resent or need assistance with the survey, simply reply to this message.
- For any questions about providing data, how your data are used, or about the U.S. Import and Export Price Indexes in general, please visit our site for survey respondents: Import/Export Price Indexes \(MXP\) Survey Participant Page.

Importance of Your Participation:

"As a Bureau of Labor Statistics survey participant, you help enhance our understanding of the increasingly complex U.S. economy. The more we understand, the better we are able to fulfill our mission and promote the prosperity of American workers, consumers, and businesses. When you agree to participate in a Bureau of Labor Statistics survey, you help provide the vital statistics we use to analyze our economy and keep it strong. For that, I thank you."

-Jerome Powell, Chairman, Federal Reserve Board of Governors

Thank you for your participation.

Susan E. Fleck
Assistant Commissioner
