I-821D, Consideration of Deferred Action For Childhood Arrivals (DACA)

Use this form to request consideration of Renewal of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA). Deferred action is a discretionary determination to defer removal action of an individual as an act of prosecutorial discretion.

Anyone who receives deferred action will not be placed into removal proceedings or removed from the United States for a specified period of time, unless the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) chooses to terminate the deferral. See 8 CFR Part 236, Subpart C; see also www.uscis.gov/DACA. USCIS considers deferring action (including renewal of deferred action) on a case-by-case basis.

Individuals requesting DACA must file Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, and Form I-765WS, Form I-765 Worksheet, at the same time as their form I-821D. See 8 CFR 236.23(a)(1).

Learn more about DACA.

Before You Start Your Request

Eligibility

You may file online only if you are submitting a renewal request. If you are submitting an initial request for DACA, you must submit a paper Form I-821D. Learn more about the I-821D and where to send your paper form here.

Individuals seeking renewal

You may be considered for Renewal of DACA if you meet all the requirements for Initial DACA and:

- You did not depart the United States on or after August 15, 2012 without advance parole;
- You have continuously resided in the United States since the date you submitted your most recent DACA request that was granted;
- Your previous DACA grant has not yet expired; and
- You have not been convicted of a felony, one significant misdemeanor, or three or more misdemeanors, and do not otherwise pose a threat to national security or public safety.

If you were convicted of a crime not listed above, arrested or detained by any law enforcement officer and charges were filed, or if charges were filed against you without an arrest, we may still grant your request for DACA. We will evaluate the totality of the circumstances in reaching a decision on whether to grant you deferred action. However, if we determine that you have been convicted of a felony, a significant misdemeanor, or three or more misdemeanors not occurring on the same date and not arising out of the same act, omission, or scheme of misconduct, or that you otherwise pose a threat to national security or public safety, we are unlikely to defer action in your case, except where DHS determines that exceptional circumstances exist.

Caution: USCIS may reject your submission and return it to you with instructions to resubmit your request closer to the expiration date, if you file this request more than 150 days prior to the expiration of your current period of deferred action. USCIS encourages Renewal requestors to file as early in the 150-day period as possible - ideally, at least 120 days prior to your DACA expiration date.

Note: If you have received DACA and you are filing within one year after your last period of deferred action expired, and your last period of deferred action was not terminated by USCIS, please follow the instructions provided for Renewal requestors. If you are filing more than one year after your last period of deferred action expired or at any time after your last period of deferred action was terminated, please follow the instructions provided below for Initial requestors.

Note: If you are currently in immigration detention, you may request consideration of DACA as a Renewal requestor from USCIS. However, USCIS can not approve your request for DACA until you are released from detention. If you are requesting DACA, you should tell your deportation officer.

Note: We will not consider deferring action in your case unless your Form I-821D is accompanied by Form I-765, with fees, and Form I-765WS. If you do not include Form I-765 with all applicable fees with your Form I-821D, your entire submission will be rejected.

Fee

Fee: There is no filing fee for Form I-821D. However, you must file Form I-765 and I-765WS with Form I-821D and pay applicable fees for Form I-765. For specific information about fees applicable to this form, see Form G-1055.

Refund policy: USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service.

Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.

Documents you may need

At the end of your request, we will highlight certain documents that you should provide with your request for DACA. At the time of filing, you must submit all evidence and supporting documentation listed. Refer to uscis.gov/i-821d if you need additional information about evidence requirements.

Biometric services appointment

USCIS may require that you appear for an interview or provide biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) at any time to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), before making a decision on your request. After USCIS receives your request and ensures it is complete, we will inform you in writing if you need to attend a biometric services appointment. If an appointment is necessary, the notice will provide you the location of your local or designated USCIS Application Support Center (ASC) and the date and time of your appointment.

If you are required to provide biometrics, at your appointment you must sign an oath reaffirming that:

- You provided or authorized all information in the request;
- You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your request; and
- All of this information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing.

If you fail to attend your biometric services appointment, USCIS may deny your application. Failure to comply with the notice may result in the denial of your deferred action request. USCIS may, in its discretion, waive the collection of certain biometrics.

After You Submit Your Request

Track your case online

After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign in to your account often to check your case status and read any important messages from USCIS.

Respond to requests for information

If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account.

Receive your decision

We will review your request to determine whether the exercise of prosecutorial discretion is appropriate in your case. Each case will be considered on an individual, case-by, case basis. Even if you satisfy the threshold criteria for consideration of DACA, we may determine that deferred action is not warranted in your case. You will be notified of the decision in writing. There is no motion to reopen/reconsider the decision and there is no right to appeal.

If you have been arrested for or charged with any felony (i.e., a Federal, state, or local criminal offense punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year) or misdemeanor (i.e., a Federal, state, or local criminal offense for which the maximum term of imprisonment authorized is one year or less but greater than five days) in the United States, or a crime in any country other than the United States, you must upload evidence demonstrating the results of the arrest or charges brought against you. If the charges against you were handled in juvenile court, and the records are from a state with laws prohibiting their disclosure, this evidence is not required.

If you have ever been arrested for any felony or misdemeanor in the United States, or a crime in any country other than the United States, and no charges were filed, upload an original official statement by the arresting agency or applicable court order confirming that no charges were filed for each arrest.

If you have ever been charged with or convicted of a felony or misdemeanor in the United States, or a crime in any country other than the United States, upload an original or court-certified copy of the complete arrest record and disposition for each incident (e.g., dismissal order, conviction and sentencing record, acquittal order).

If you have ever had any arrest or conviction vacated, set aside, sealed, expunged, or otherwise removed from your record upload:

- An original or court-certified copy of the court order vacating, setting aside, sealing, expunging, or otherwise removing the arrest or conviction; or
- An original statement from the court that no record exists of your arrest or conviction.

Renewal Requests

If you are submitting a renewal request, you only need to submit any new documents pertaining to criminal history that you have not already submitted to USCIS. However, you should submit new documents if you have been charged with, or convicted of, a felony or misdemeanor (please note, you do not need to submit these documents if you already submitted them with a previous DACA request).

If you are unable to provide documentation or if it is not available, upload an explanation, including a description of your efforts to obtain this evidence.

Note: You do not need to submit documentation concerning minor traffic violations such as driving without a license unless they were alcohol-or drug-related.

File requirements

- Clear and readable
- Accepted file formats: JPG, JPEG, or PDF
- No encrypted or password-protected files
- If your documents are in a foreign language, upload a full English translation and the translator's certification with each original document.
- Accepted file name characters: English letters, numbers, spaces, periods, hyphens, underscores, and parentheses
- Maximum size: 6MB per file
- Upload no more than five documents at a time
