Form I-90
OMB No. 1615-0082
Expires 10/31/2025

What Is the Purpose of Form I-90?

Use Form I-90 if you are a lawful permanent resident (LPR) or an LPR in commuter status who needs to apply to replace or renew your current Permanent Resident Card (Green Card). If you are a conditional permanent resident with a 2-year card, you may use this application only if your card is still valid and will not expire in the next 90 days.

If you are a conditional permanent resident with a 2-year card and your card will expire in the next 90 days, do NOT file Form I-90. Instead, you must:

1. File Form I-751, Petition to Remove Conditions on Residence, if you obtained your conditional permanent resident status through marriage to a U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident; or
2. File Form I-829, Petition by Entrepreneur to Remove Conditions on Permanent Resident Status, if you obtained your conditional permanent resident status based on the creation of a new commercial enterprise and a financial investment in the United States.

General Instructions

We provide free forms through the USCIS website. When electronically filing this application, you must follow the instructions provided on the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov/file-online/file-form-i-90-online.

Signature. You (or your signing authority) must properly complete your application. USCIS will not accept a stamped or typewritten name in place of any signature on this application. If you are under 14 years of age, your parent or legal guardian may sign the application on your behalf. A legal guardian may also sign for a mentally incompetent person. If your application is not signed, or if the signature is not valid, we will reject your application. See 8 CFR 103.2(a)(7)(ii)(A). If USCIS accepts a request for adjudication and determines that it has a deficient signature, USCIS will deny the request.

Validity of Signatures. USCIS will consider a photocopied, faxed, or scanned copy of an original handwritten signature as valid for filing purposes. The photocopy, fax, or scan must be of the original document containing the handwritten ink signature.

Filing Fee. See Form G-1055, available at www.uscis.gov/forms, for specific information about the fees applicable to this form.

If we determine that a biometric services appointment is necessary, we will send you an appointment notice with the date, time, and location of your appointment. If you are currently overseas, your notice will instruct you to contact a U.S. Embassy, U.S. Consulate, or USCIS office outside the United States to schedule an appointment.

At your biometrics appointment, you must sign an oath reaffirming that:

1. You provided or authorized all information in the application;
2. You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your application; and USCIS may request an original document at any time during our process. If we request an original document from you, we will return it to you after USCIS determines it no longer needs the original.

NOTE: If you submit original documents when they are not required or requested, USCIS may destroy them after we receive them.

Translations. If you submit a document with information in a foreign language, you must also submit a full English translation. ## Specific Instructions

Part 1. Information About You

Item Number 1. Alien Registration Number (A-Number) (if any). Provide your A-Number. We use your A-Number to identify your immigration records. It begins with an “A” and can be found on correspondence you have received from the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) or USCIS. If you do not have an A-Number, type or print “N/A.”

Item Number 2. USCIS Online Account Number. You will only have a USCIS Online Account Number (OAN) if you previously filed a form that has a receipt number that begins with IOE. If you filed the form online, you can find your OAN in your account profile. If you mailed us the form, you can find your OAN at the top of the Account Access Notice we sent you. If you do not have a receipt number that begins with IOE, you do not have an OAN. The OAN is not the same as an A-Number.
