INFORMATION

WHO IS ELIGIBLE: Benefits are payable to certain survivors of members or former members of the Armed Forces who died while on active duty prior to August 13, 1981, or who died from a disability incurred in or aggravated by active duty prior to August 13, 1981. Service in the Public Health Service or National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration does not qualify.

SURVIVING SPOUSE: If you were married to the veteran at the time of his or her death and are not currently married, you may be eligible for REPS benefits for yourself when the youngest child in your care reaches age 16. These benefits will terminate when the child reaches age 18, whether or not the child is still in high school.

CHILD: If you are an unmarried child of the veteran between the ages of 18 and 21 and are attending a postsecondary school full time, you may be eligible for REPS. In the United States, "postsecondary school" refers to school above the level of high school. If you are age 18 and still in high school, you are not eligible for REPS. However, you may apply to the Social Security Administration for an extension of benefits.
