Fibromyalgia Evaluation Sheet

Please complete the following worksheet to supplement your narrative summary on this patient. This document outlines the tender point sites from the American College of Rheumatology 1990 Criteria for the Classification of Fibromyalgia.

REFERENCE: Social Security Ruling 12-2p: Titles II and XVI: Evaluation of Fibromyalgia (located at: https://www.ssa.gov/OP_Home/rulings/di/01/SSR2012-02-di-01.html).

Note which tender points are positive on this diagram by marking with a large "X". For a tender point to be considered positive, the patient must state that the palpation was painful.
