

Permits Online (PONL) — Applications for Amended Permits Screen Shots

NOTE: This example involves changes to an FAA Act basic permit for a winery. Applications for amendments to distilled spirits, alcohol importer, or alcohol wholesaler FAA Act basic permits use the same or very similar data fields to collect the required information.

The screenshot shows the TTB Permits Online (PONL) system interface. The user is logged in as Michael Hoover. The main navigation bar includes Home, My Submissions, Resume Draft, and Help. The main content area displays a welcome message and a "What do you want to do today?" section with four options: "Apply for new permits, registrations or notices", "Amend approved permits, registrations or notices", "Fill out a Personnel Questionnaire (PQ)", and "Link additional records to my account". A "Helpful resources" box is also visible on the right.

Figure 1 – To amend an existing FAA Act Basic Permit using the PONL system, after logging into the PONL system, the respondent will select “Amend approved permits, registrations or notices.”
