What is an "Identity of Interest?"

The Section 184 program and the Section 184A program define an "Identity of Interest" as a sales transaction between family members, business partners, or other business affiliates. Examples of an identity of interest includes, but is not limited to, a parent selling to his or her children, a corporation selling to an employee, and persons who are partners in other projects as buyer/seller.

Check the option below that describes your situation:

- I do not have an "identity of interest" with the seller of the property I plan to purchase with the Section 184/184A financing for which I have applied.
- I do have an "identity of interest" with the seller of the property I plan to purchase with the Section 184/184A financing for which I have applied.

My relationship with the seller is: _____.

What is a "Conflict of Interest?"

The Section 184 program and the Section 184A program define a "Conflict of Interest" as any party to the transaction who has a direct or indirect personal business or financial relationship sufficient to appear that it may cause partiality or influence the transaction, or both.

- I do not have a "Conflict of Interest" with any other party to the transaction, including the real estate agent, lender, contractor and/or appraiser.
