

Topics for interviews and listening sessions

Public Health Law Attorneys

Listening sessions and interviews will be semi-structured and will not include a formal set of questions asked to each respondent. Discussions will be used to identify approaches and barriers to enhancing food safety statutes and regulations in correctional settings.

Topics:

- Reactions to differences between food safety laws for correctional facilities and commercial settings
- Experience working with state food safety laws for correctional facilities and commercial settings
- Barriers to changing state food safety laws for correctional facilities
- Opportunities for education and outreach to individuals interested in food safety regulations

Public reporting burden of this collection of information is estimated to average 30 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to CDC/ATSDR Reports Clearance Officer, 1600 Clifton Road NE, MS D-74, Atlanta, Georgia 30333; ATTN: PRA 0920-1071