

[OPEN UP ZOOM LINK and greet participant]

INTRO AND CONSENT. Hello, thank you for joining me today. As I explained on our phone call, we are conducting a study to try out questions for a survey of refugees in the U.S. It is funded by the Office of Refugee Resettlement, which is a federal agency, and being conducted by two independent research organizations, the Urban Institute and Research Support Services. The purpose of the Annual Survey of Refugees is to understand how refugees adapt to life in the United States. The survey questions are about your family, your education, work, community, and access to help and healthcare. If you agree to participate, you will be completing the survey online and I'll be asking you about how you understood the questions and how hard or easy it was to answer some of the questions.

This is not a test and there are no right or wrong answers. We are only gathering information to see how well the questions work. Observing how participants answer the questions and asking them about their answers allows us to figure out which questions are working well, and which need to be improved.

The interview will take 75 minutes. Once it is completed, you will receive an electronic $40 token of appreciation to thank you for your participation. You will receive the link to claim it by email or text message, whichever you prefer.

As you know, we will do this interview online here, on Zoom. We need to audio and video record the interview. Only the people who work on this study will view the recording. It will help us make sure we have understood your answers.

Participation in this interview is voluntary. You can choose to participate or not to participate. You also don't have to answer any questions you don't want to answer, and you can stop the interview at any time. If you choose to participate, the answers you give will be private and will not have your name on them. Federal law keeps your answers private. You will continue to receive social services and benefits regardless of your decision to participate or not in the study.

Finally, there is little risk associated with your participation because of the care we are taking to keep your name and your answers safe. Your information will not be shared with the Office of Refugee Resettlement. Since this is on Zoom, I encourage you to participate in a private setting away from hearing or viewing by others. While we are using the appropriate security measures, it is important that you know that no system such as Zoom is 100 percent secure. We will be recording the video and audio for this interview, and it will only be seen by the research team and will be destroyed at the end of the project. There is always a small risk that digital recordings could be seen or used by non-research team members, but we are confident that our data security measures will keep your information private.

There are no direct benefits to you, but you will be helping the Office of Refugee Resettlement understand how the survey questionnaire is working and improve their knowledge of refugee experiences.

If you have any questions or decide that you want to change your mind about participating in the next two weeks, you can email me at [xxx] or call me at [xxx], and I will let the Study Director know.

Also, a federal agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The OMB number for this information collection is XXXX and the expiration date is XXXXX.

PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT OF 1995 (Pub. L. 104-13) STATEMENT OF PUBLIC BURDEN: The purpose of this information collection is to conduct a feasibility test for implementing an online version of the Annual Survey of Refugees (ASR). Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.5 hours per grantee, including the time for reviewing instructions, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and reviewing the collection of information. This is a voluntary collection of information. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information subject to the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Do you have any questions about the study or the interview?

To access the survey, you will need to click on a link that I am now putting in the Zoom Chat box. Do you see it? [TROUBLESHOOT AS NEEDED]

[ONCE R. HAS ACCESSED THE SURVEY] Now I need you to share your screen so I can see the survey as you are answering it. [ASSIST R IN SHARING SCREEN.]

Great, you are all set! Now, let's imagine you are at home, by yourself, answering the survey and that there is no interviewer with you. Please read each question – either aloud or just to yourself – and tell me your response. If there is something that you don't understand, something that is not clear or that you don't know how to answer, please say something and I will make a note. I will ask you about it later. After you answer a group of questions, I will ask you to stop so we can talk about the questions you just answered. For example, I might ask you what a particular term or phrase means or ask you, or I may ask you to put the question in your own words. There are no right or wrong answers to any of the questions that I might ask. I am not trying to test or quiz you about these terms. We just want to make sure that everyone is understanding these survey questions in the same way. Your participation is important because it will help us improve the survey questions. Before we begin, do you have any questions?
