

of 2012. The Act required the establishment of the NPOAG within one year after its enactment. The NPOAG was established in March 2001. The NPOAG is comprised of a balanced group of representatives of general aviation, commercial air tour operators, environmental concerns, and Native American tribes. The Administrator of the FAA and the Director of NPS (or their designees) serve as ex officio members of the NPOAG.

Representatives of the Administrator and Director serve alternating 1-year terms as chairperson of the NPOAG.

In accordance with the Act, the NPOAG provides “advice, information, and recommendations to the Administrator and the Director—

1. On implementation of this title [the Act] and the amendments made by this title;

2. On commonly accepted quiet aircraft technology for use in commercial air tour operations over a national park or tribal lands, which will receive preferential treatment in a given air tour management plan;

3. On other measures that might be taken to accommodate the interests of visitors to national parks; and

4. At the request of the Administrator and the Director, on safety, environmental, and other issues related to commercial air tour operations over national parks or tribal lands.”

Membership

The current NPOAG is made up of one member representing general aviation, three members representing commercial air tour operators, four members representing environmental concerns, and two members representing Native American tribes. Members serve three-year terms. Current members of the NPOAG are as follows: Murray Huling representing general aviation; James Viola, John Becker, and one vacancy representing commercial air tour operators; Robert Randall, Dick Hingson, Les Blomberg, and John Eastman representing environmental interests; Carl Slater and one vacancy representing Native American tribes.

Selection

Dyan Youpee of the Fort Peck Assiniboine & Sioux Tribes and Eric Hamp of Blue Hawaiian Helicopters have been selected to fill the two vacancies for Native American tribes and commercial air tour operators, respectively. The three-year term will commence on the publication date of this Federal Register notice.

Issued in Washington, DC, on August 22, 2024.

Sandra Fox,

Environmental Protection Specialist, Office of Environment and Energy.
