Claim Types

*Select all of the following that you would like to discuss at your appointment:

- Retirement
- You should apply for benefits no more than four months before the date you want your benefits to start.
 - If you are not getting Social Security and you are not ready to retire, you should still sign up for Medicare four months before your 65th birthday. More Info
- Medicare
- Medicare is our country's health insurance program for people age 65 or older.
 - Certain people younger than age 65 can qualify for Medicare, too, including those who have disabilities and those who have permanent kidney failure or amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (Lou Gehrig's disease).
 - The program helps with the cost of health care, but it does not cover all medical expenses or the cost of most long-term care. More Info

Supplemental Security Income (SSI)

- SSI is a federal program that provides monthly payments.
- You must have limited income and assets, and
- You must be 65 or older, or blind or have a disability. More Info
