

Survey on Where Parents Look for and Find Information When Selecting Child Care

AE. About Your Household

NORC is conducting an important survey to learn about how parents look for and use information when they choose child care or early education for their young children. Some parents may use child care or early education, while other parents may not and instead care for their child(ren) themselves. The study is sponsored by the Administration for Children and Families, a federal agency. The information collected will help policymakers understand what parents may need to help find child care and early education. Please have an adult (18 years or older) who lives in this household answer the following questions. The questions take about 20 minutes, and your participation is voluntary. You do not have to answer any question you do not want to answer. Your information will be kept private. All of your answers will become part of an anonymous group of responses called a data set. The survey findings will only be shared as summary statistics and will not include any information that could identify you or your child(ren). We may link this survey data with other data about the neighborhood or state you live in. Study findings will be put into summary reports and shared publicly but will not contain any names or other information that identifies you. The data, questionnaire, and analysis files will be prepared and submitted to be archived in an online data repository. The archived data will be available to other researchers to access and use but will not contain names or other identifying information. If you have any questions, you may call the NORC Institutional Review Board Administrator, toll free, at 1-866-309-0542.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The OMB number and expiration date for this collection are OMB #: 0970-0627, Exp: 05/13/2025.

A1. What state do you currently live in?

[DROP DOWN MENU LISTING EACH STATE AND DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA]

INSTRUCTIONS: Throughout this questionnaire, we will ask you questions about child care and early education that families may use when their child is not with the parent or legal guardian. When asking you these questions, we mean all the different types of child care and early education, including child care, sometimes referred to as daycare, Early Head Start, Head Start, preschool/pre-kindergarten programs, nursery school, Montessori or other programs which can be:

- Home-based, which occurs in someone's home, such as the child's home or the provider's home regardless of where they live (such as a self-standing house, apartment that they share with extended members of the family). Home-based care can be paid or unpaid, from family, friends or neighbors, or from someone who operates a child care business in their home.
- Center-based, which occurs in an organization, school, or business that is large or small and not someone's home.

In the questions throughout this questionnaire, we will be using the term 'child care' to mean all these different types of child care and early education for children who are not yet in kindergarten.

Please answer this questionnaire thinking about child(ren) in your household who are under the age of 6, but not yet in kindergarten.

A2. Are any of these children under the age of 6 (not yet enrolled in kindergarten) currently enrolled in a child care program?
