OMB Control Number 1545-0723

(1) CIRCUMSTANCES NECESSITATING COLLECTION OF INFORMATION

Treasury Decision (TD) 8043 revises and updates regulations on manufactures excise taxes on sporting goods, firearms and other administrative provisions especially applicable to manufacturers and retailers excise taxes.

Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 4161 imposes on the sale of any article of sport fishing equipment by the manufacture, producer, or importer a tax of 10% of the price will be imposed.

Section 4181 of the IRC imposes a tax, upon the sale by the manufacture, producer, or importer a tax of 10% will be imposed on pistols and revolvers, and a tax of 11% shall be imposed on firearms (other than pistols and revolvers), shells and cartridges.

Section 4182 of the IRC details the exemptions to the taxes imposed by sections 4181 and 5811(transfer tax).

Section 6206 of the IRC detail the special rules applicable to excessive claims under sections 6416, 6420, 6421, 6427, or 6675.

Section 6412 of the IRC addresses tires and taxable fuel that have been sold by the manufacturer, producer or importer; but are being held by a dealer and has not been used and is intended for sale, the manufacturer, producer, or importer will be eligible for a credit or refund.

Section 6416 of the IRC Certain states no credit or refund of any overpayment of tax imposed relating to retail excise or manufacturing taxes will be allowed or made unless the person who paid the tax meets the requirements of section 6416.

Section 6420 of the IRC allows the ultimate purchaser of gasoline used on a farm for farming purposes to claim a credit or refund of the tax and provides rules relating to those claims.

Section 6421 of the IRC allows the ultimate purchaser of gasoline for specified nontaxable purposes to claim a credit or refund of the tax and provides rules relating to those claims.

Section 6427 of the IRC allows the ultimate purchaser of certain fuels for specified nontaxable purposes to claim a credit or refund of the tax and provides rules relating to those claims.

Section 6675 of the IRC will assess a civil penalty, if a claim for an excessive amount is made for fuels covered by sections 6420, 6421, and 6427.

The collection requirements are third-party disclosures for notification from manufacturers to retailers of excise tax applications. Additionally, manufacturers are expected to keep records for inspection by IRS examination to ascertain the correctness of any claim. The reporting requirements contained with the TD are covered within forms as detailed in question 12 of this supporting statement.

(2) USE OF DATA

The third-party disclosures and recordkeeping is used by the Internal Revenue Service and taxpayers to verify that the proper amount of tax is reported or excluded.

(3) USE OF IMPROVED INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY TO REDUCE BURDEN

The IRS has no plans to offer electronic enabling because this collection is a notification of the rules for excise taxes on sporting goods and firearms and other administrative provisions of special application to manufacturers and retailers excise taxes and recordkeeping requirements.

(4) EFFORTS TO IDENTIFY DUPLICATION

The information obtained through this collection is unique and is not already available for use or adaptation from another source.

(5) METHODS TO MINIMIZE BURDEN ON SMALL BUSINESSES OR OTHER SMALL ENTITIES

The IRS proactively works with both internal and external stakeholders to minimize the burden on small businesses, while maintaining tax compliance. The Agency also seeks input regarding the burden estimates from the public via notices and tax product instructions. The Agency will continue to as applicable find ways to reduce the burden on small businesses or other small entities.

(6) CONSEQUENCES OF LESS FREQUENT COLLECTION ON FEDERAL PROGRAMS OR POLICY ACTIVITIES

Consequences of less frequent collection would result in the IRS being unable to monitor compliance with the Federal tax rules related to the manufactures excise taxes on sporting goods, firearms and other administrative provisions especially applicable to manufacturers and retailers excise taxes; thereby engendering the inability of the IRS to meet its mission.

(7) SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES REQUIRING DATA COLLECTION TO BE INCONSISTENT WITH GUIDELINES IN 5 CFR 1320.5(d)(2)

There are no special circumstances requiring data collection to be inconsistent with guidelines in 5 CFR 1320.5(d)(2).

(8) CONSULTATION WITH INDIVIDUALS OUTSIDE OF THE AGENCY ON AVAILABILITY OF DATA, FREQUENCY OF COLLECTION, CLARITY OF INSTRUCTIONS AND FORMS, AND DATA ELEMENTS

(13) ESTIMATED TOTAL ANNUAL COST BURDEN TO RESPONDENTS

There is no annual cost burden to respondents. The records disclosed and kept are part of of customary and usual business practices.

(14) ESTIMATED ANNUALIZED COST TO THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

There are no annualized costs to the Federal government outside of regular agency activities such as taxpayer assistance and enforcement.

(15) REASONS FOR CHANGE IN BURDEN

There is no change in the paperwork burden previously approved by OMB. The IRS is making this submission to renew the OMB approval.

(16) PLANS FOR TABULATION, STATISTICAL ANALYSIS AND PUBLICATION

There are no plans for tabulation, statistical analysis, and publication.

(17) REASONS WHY DISPLAYING THE OMB EXPIRATION DATE IS INAPPROPRIATE

The IRS believes that displaying the OMB expiration date is inappropriate because it could cause confusion by leading taxpayers to believe that the regulation sunsets as of the expiration date. Taxpayers are not likely to be aware that the IRS intends to request renewal of the OMB approval and obtain a new expiration date before the old one expires.

(18) EXCEPTIONS TO THE CERTIFICATION STATEMENT

There are no exceptions to the certification statement.

Note: The following paragraph applies to all of the collections of information in this submission:

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless the collection of information displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a collection of information must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any internal revenue law. Generally, tax returns and tax return information are confidential, as required by 26 U.S.C. 6103.
