Official Site for Travelers Visiting the United States: Apply for or Retrieve Form I-94, Request Travel History and Check Travel Compliance

International travelers visiting the United States can apply for or retrieve their I-94 admission number/record (which is proof of legal visitor status) as well as retrieve a limited travel history of their U.S. arrivals and departures.

Visiting the U.S. & Arriving Via a Land Border or Selected Ferry?

A Form I-94 is needed by all visitors except: U.S. Citizens, returning resident aliens, aliens with immigrant visas, and most Canadian citizens visiting or in transit. Travelers will be issued an I-94 during the admission process at the port of entry. If you are traveling via a land border or by ferry from selected ports, you may apply for an I-94 in advance here, saving time while at the port of entry later.

Already Visiting & Need Proof of Visitor Status?

A traveler lawfully admitted (or paroled) into the U.S. may look up their most recent Form I-94 going back to 1983 for most classes of admission (or parole), and indefinitely for certain classes, such as diplomats and those admitted under the Compacts of Free Association. The corresponding Form I-94 may then be printed here. This is considered your lawful record of admission.

If someone requests your admission information, this is the form you would provide.

For Your Info

Effective April 26, 2013, DHS began automating the admission process.

An alien lawfully admitted or paroled into the U.S. is no longer required to be in possession of a preprinted Form I-94.

A record of admission printed from the CBP website constitutes a lawful record of admission. See 8 CFR § 1.4(d).

What to do if someone requests your admission info:

If an employer, local, state or federal agency requests admission information, present your admission (I-94) number along with any additional required documents requested by that employer or agency.

For security, close your browser after retrieving your I-94 number.

Privacy Notice

This Privacy Notice serves to Inform you of why DHS is requesting the information on this site.

AUTHORITY:

Collection of the information requested on this form is authorized by the Intelligence Reform and Terrorism Prevention Act of 2004, Pub. L. No. 108-458, codified in 50 U.S.C. §§ 401 et seq.; the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. §§ 1101 et seq.; and the Homeland Security Act of 2002, 6 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq.

PURPOSE:

The information that you submit when attempting access to this website is used to retrieve your arrival and departure records. CBP will retain the information submitted when attempting to access records through this website for 3 months for audit and system performance purposes. CBP stores a record of the period of admissibility of nonimmigrant aliens, maintains a central repository of contact information for these aliens, and captures arrival and departure information to identify travel patterns, arrivals without departure, and nonimmigrant aliens overstaying their terms of admission in the United States. The timely and accurate capturing of this data is necessary for entry screening, to determine admissibility of nonimmigrant aliens, and to monitor compliance with United States laws.

ROUTINE USES:

The information you submit for the purposes of accessing this website will not be shared with any entities or persons outside of DHS. CBP may share your arrival and departure records externally to other government agencies to assist the Department of Homeland Security and other agencies in making determinations about eligibility for a requested benefit and future admissibility to the United States. For more information, please review the I-94 Website Privacy Impact Assessment, available at <https://www.dhs.gov/publication/us-customs-and-border-protection-form-i-94-automation>.

CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO PROVIDE INFORMATION:

Providing this information is voluntary. However, failure to provide all or any part of information requested, or the provision of inaccurate information, may result in denial of access to this website.

Violation Area

Violation Description:

Your authorized period of stay in the United States expired on 1/13/2017 (mm/dd/yyyy). Travel records indicate you departed the United States after your authorized period of stay by 30 days.

Depending on the length of your stay, you may be inadmissible into the United States pursuant to the following sections of law:

1. Section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(I) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA): Non-immigrant who overstayed an admission between 181 and 364 days are subject to a 3 year bar from seeking admission into the United States.
2. Section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(II) of the INA: Non-immigrant who overstayed an admission 365 days or more are subject to a 10 year bar from seeking admission into the United States.

Action:

Because you stayed beyond your authorized period of stay, your travel document may no longer be valid or you may no longer be eligible for the WVP. If you need or wish to travel to the U.S., please visit www.state.gov for visa information.

For any issue or questions with the information provided, please review this page for Frequently Asked Questions or visit, help.cbp.gov.
