TITLE OF INFORMATION COLLECTION: O’ahu Climate Champions Final Reflection

PURPOSE:

In contrast to the Climate Champions monthly reflection survey, this survey will be given once, at the end of the summer. The purpose of this survey is to assess the overall impressions and feedback from participants in the O’ahu Climate Champions program about their experience so that the City and County of Honolulu can make necessary program improvements.

DESCRIPTION OF RESPONDENTS:

Respondents will include Climate Champions, who are part-time summer interns hosted by a community-based organizations around the island, and their supervisors, usually a staff member from the community-based organization. The project will run for three years, so there will be 3 cohorts of champions over the course of the program, while the supervisors are expected to remain the same.
